TOWER

1965 Edition

Shades Valley High School

Birmingham, Alabama

A Mountie's Meditation

Going up in the tower,
Seeking new heights as you climb,
Is like going up in a swing,
Like a child, looking far and wide
To see things never seen before.
A glance sweeps back
And falls on things familiar, and yet,
Foreign in their new perspective.

Classes, teachers, friends and events—
The reverence of morning watch,
The daily raising of the flag,
The crisp bark of football cheers,
The late departures from meetings and rehearsals,
The applause for Showcase
And finally,
The white robes of graduation.

Everything fits into one creative pattern—
An increasing awareness of the community,
Our acceptance of responsibility,
The growing sensitivity to life
Portrayed in song, art, and science;
The spirit of hope
Which makes the impossible a thing to be done.
And our life is such a small part of it.

And yet,
As one climbs many a horizon is revealed,
Of travels here and around the world,
Of great discoveries made by man,
Of help and service to those in need,
Of opportunities from which to build.

The tower gives a feeling of freedom,
It lays the world at Mounties' feet,
And reduces it to conquerable size,
It releases one from the forces
That hold ordinary people to the ground,
And looking out,
A place in life's landscape can be found.
The tower's summit gained reveals new heights
Which ever beckon onward,
And those who seek
Find the challenge of worlds to come.

This is The World Around the Tower.

Administration . . . Uniting Valleyites and the World

Nestled in the heart of the Valley, Shades Valley High School holds a prominent place in the community. Through the administration's efforts, Valley holds a high national scholastic standing. To prepare the students for the emerging curriculum with outstanding universities, Dr. Peake and the counselors are invited each year to visit these institutions to participate in a study of the new trends in the changing educational program. In the office, counselors aid students in making wise decisions for their coming years, and the activities of the various departments are co-ordinated so that students are given a well-rounded concept of life. The administration also offers citizens of the Valley facilities for voting, athletic contests, and community programs at which students are given an opportunity to serve. Thus, through the work of the administration, students can become an integral, working part of society as mature individuals.

Valley's Administration Organizes,

FRANK A. PEAKE, Principal
Olivet College, A.B.; Howard College, M.A., LL.D.

Dr. Peake's many contributions in the field of education reflect his deep concern for each student at Valley. Our busy principal served on the State course of Study Committee which assured Valleyites of the most recent courses available. As president of the National Council of the National Honor Society, he not only represents Shades Valley but also the state of Alabama. He represented Valley on the College Entrance Examination Board and continues to attend these meetings, and serves as State Director of the National Commission on Safety Education. He is known for his active participation as a member of the National Association of Secondary School Principals, and is an advisory member of the Executive Committee of the Alabama Association of Secondary School Principals.

One can easily see how Dr. Peake, through his diversified activities and his many contributions, has helped to prepare the students at Valley, who venture into a world of rapid growth and strong competition.

Counsels and Supports Mounties

HUGH H. STEGALL
Livingston State, B.S.
University of Ala., M.A.

Constant contact with teachers, parents, and students is a must for Mr. Stegall, our Vice Principal, who has the important job of assisting Dr. Peake. His main concern is with attendance and discipline, one of the most challenging aspects of today's educational system.

Mr. Stegall is one of Valley's staunchest supporters in the field of sports, his interest dating back to his own college basketball days. When time allows, he enjoys fishing and hunting.

Aside from his job at Valley, he is studying for his doctorate at the University of Alabama.

Rendering regular reports to the County Board of Education of all of Valley's financial transactions is the exacting job of Mr. Alexander, our business manager, and Mrs. Rogers, his assistant. Their job ranges from advising the faculty and students on purchasing supplies of the best quality and lowest prices to the handling of football tickets. Mr. Alexander gives valuable assistance to the functions of all the organizations, and at the same time his office provides experience for students entering the field of business administration.

Our counselors strive to help each student attain the highest degree of accomplishment his capabilities, personality, and vision can combine to make possible. It is in the counselors' office that the many facet guidance program is centered. Here students are oriented to Valley's program, helped with choice of subjects each year, with personal problems, choice of careers, of college, College Boards and ACT tests.

Scholarships and financial aid, even finding employment or securing needed books, fees, and clothing are part of their job. Out of school the counselors are busy attending meetings, learning more about the curriculum and college requirements. Their job is never done, but the fruits of their labor is in the higher quality of education that is offered each student.

Placed at the head of activity centers is Shades Valley's library. Here more than twenty-five thousand books are available every day with an average daily circulation of two hundred fifty-three books. Mrs. Cobb and Mrs. Beal, our librarians, assisted by Mrs. Stone, work diligently with twenty-eight student assistants to maintain one of the most efficient departments in the school. In addition to the maintenance of books and periodicals, the staff is responsible for audio-visual aids. In the attractive environment of our library, students are given a greater understanding of the world's art, science, music, literature, and history.

... Keeping the Wheels Moving

Because of the four members of the office staff the wheels of the office are kept running. The registration of new students, Dr. Peake's correspondence, and keeping the classrooms supplied with teachers in case of absentees are some of Mrs. Bush's duties; while Mrs. Pugh compiles and keeps up with the vital statistics of the students and the school. Always with a telephone at her ear is Mrs. Vines who contacts the absentees and helps those who need to leave school. Least seen, but none the less important is Mrs. Rogers, the assistant bookkeeper.

Cafeteria—Serving Food for Thought

DIETITIANS: Frances Crisp, Lois McVea, Daisy Davis

Five o'clock in the morning is the time for pie boards to be readied by Mrs. McVea and her cooking staff as she prepares lunch for over two thousand hungry students at Valley. 2150 steaks, 300 pounds of ground beef, 800 to 900 pieces of chicken, rice by the gallon, vegetables by the bushel, and milk by the truckload are not unusual daily orders placed in the preparation of her delicious meals.

Mrs. McVea and her twenty helpers not only serve students at Valley but also take care of banquets enjoyed by various organizations of the school and community. All this is done with the gracious smile and expert guidance for which Mrs. McVea is known.

In addition to his many duties here, he serves as a Minister of Visitation at the First Methodist Church. We are grateful for the benefits of his many talents.

Departments . . . Opening Doors to New Experiences

Down the halls of Valley one may enter many doors—doors that lead to questioning, exploring, and experimenting, to the development of knowledge, appreciation and skills. For in the various departments at Valley students find the opportunity to develop their capabilities. It is through the mutual contact between students and teachers that a deeper awareness of life is nurtured. From sports to languages, history or science, the doors to learning are opened, and through these doors Mounties pass.

The English Department at Shades Valley revolves around the study of literature. Through their English teachers Valleyites are introduced to authors of different periods in history such as Shakespeare, Dickens, Hardy, Keats, and many others. These associations guide the students in the formation of opinions and in the development of effective expression. Mounties' mature through their study of Shakespeare from their Sophomore reading of the feast of the Lupercal to their Senior interpretation of the murder of Banquo. They have gained a deeper appreciation of the written word and its vital impact upon the world.

Five Valley students entered the National Council of Teachers of English Contest. They are: Ann Wheeler, Jim Thompson, Mary Vines, Dot Siegal, and Linda Ennis.

Valley is proud to acknowledge Lynda Ennis who won the N. C. T. E. award for outstanding achievement in English. Linda who was cited for high quality of writing and literary awareness was one of eight in Alabama to win. Only 860 national winners out of 8000 entrants were chosen.

Promoting American Patriotism

The American Legion sponsors an oratorical contest each year in an effort to promote Americanism. Peggy Leatherwood, last year's regional winner and second in the county, tells Jack Wright this year's regional winner of challenges and opportunities to come through participation in the contest.

The American Studies Club was created with the purpose of promoting better understanding of the American way.

Under the guidance of Mr. Gaylor, the club participates in both visual and verbal activities to further the self-education of its members.

Again this year members of the history club visited the Mercy Home as one of its projects. This organization annually donates history books to the Library in an endeavor to promote good will and international understanding. Their programs, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Goldfarb, are geared to furthering knowledge and awareness of other countries, and include scheduled dinner meetings that are enjoyed by everyone.

Whether finding proportions for cropping a picture, using logarithms for chemistry, or making calculations for testing a physics theory, Mounties are employing symbols of a universal language. Helping to make this language useful in preparation for the study of medicine, science, engineering and other specialized fields, the Math Department offers courses from Record Keeping to Advanced Placement Mathematics, a one year course in calculus, for which some students receive college credit. New methods and advanced training make this department one which helps to prepare Valleyites for the future.

Whether it is countdown time for exploration into outer space, or the counting of blood cells in a technician's laboratory, science is of vital importance to everyone. The Science Department of Shades Valley realizes the tremendous need to meet the challenge of tomorrow and gears its program toward the development of the students of today. From the study of living things, elements, natural laws, and theory, the student is led to question, experiment, and draw conclusions. Through field trips and Science Fairs, our students are encouraged to participate and have a personal experience in preparing for the future.

To me it seems as if when God conceived the world, that was poetry; He formed it, and that was sculpture; He varied and colored it, and that was painting; and then, crowning all, He peopled it with living beings, and that was the grand divine, eternal drama.

Paint, brush, clay, wire, papier-mache — these are some of the materials used by Art Club members who creatively help produce stage presentations at Valley. Members enter works in local and National Art Exhibits, and they extend their talents to Civic Art Projects such as the Festival of Arts and the making of the Marionettes for the Civic Opera. Mountie Day, Tower layout, and posters have a part in their programs and service. Art Club members also enjoy making fields trips to local art shows, attending the state convention, and listening to noted artists at their own meetings.

Shades Valley High School Band

"Musical training is a more potent instrument than any other because rhythm and harmony find their way into the inward places of the soul."

Plato

This is what Plato said over 2500 years ago and yet we can apply it today to the Shades Valley High School Band. Its influence is felt throughout the State by its participation in pep rallies, football games, parades, concerts, fine arts productions and many other activities.

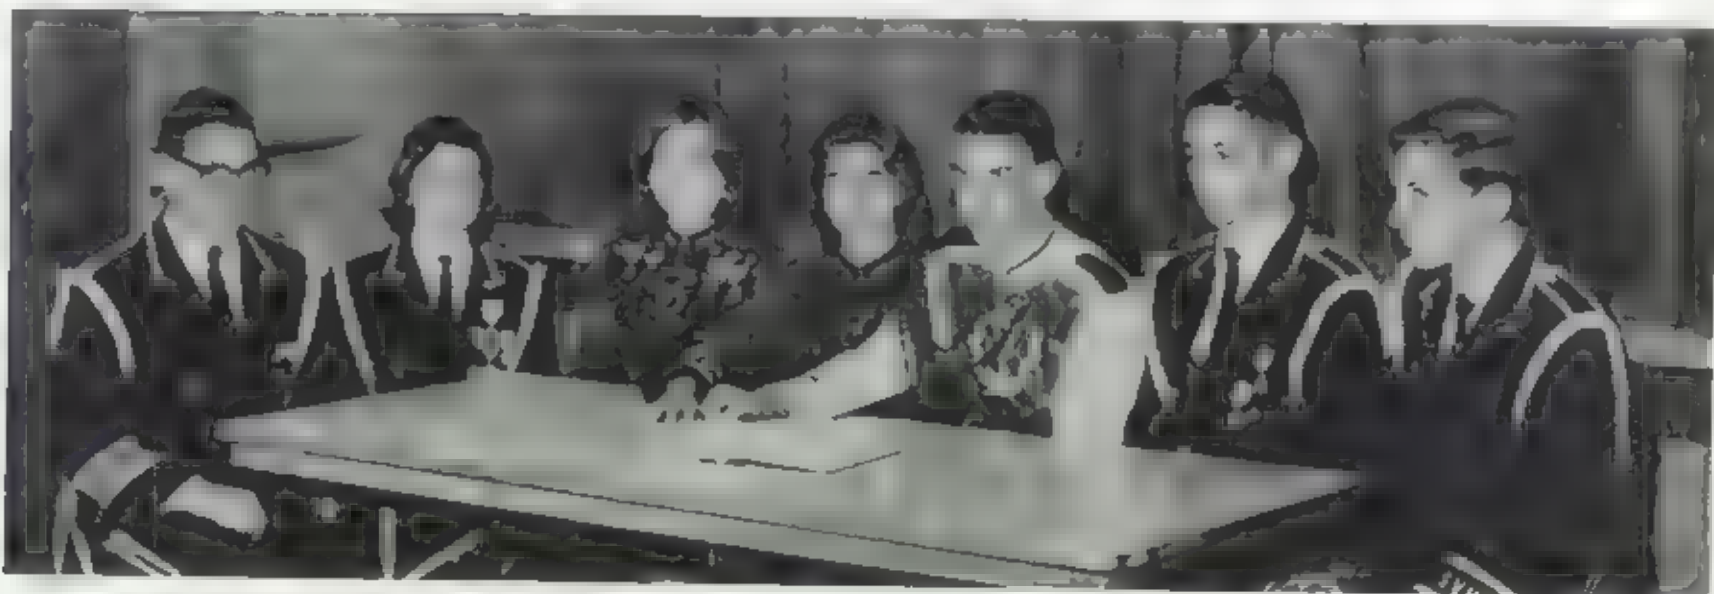

The Band's greatest objective is the State Band concert in Tuscaloosa at which it has constantly been rated superior or excellent and last year was rated top band in the State.

Even when the school year is over the band plays on . . . with a summer band concert every Thursday night in Homewood Park.

We are very proud of our band and its director Mr. Deagon.

Mrs. Griffith and Mr. Deagon work closely on band projects all year.

In this age of world travel and national interdependence, the need to master foreign languages is increasing steadily. Today colleges require students to learn at least one language. We at Valley are fortunate to have a choice of four languages, French, Spanish, Latin, and German, the latter being offered in only one other school in our state. In addition, the language department has extended its program to include a summer abroad where students can learn more about the languages and culture of the countries of Europe.

The French National Honor Society recognizes in an annual tapping students who have excelled in French and have an excellent overall record. The club this year held a dinner every six weeks where only French was spoken. The French Honor Society stands as an inspiration for higher scholastic achievement, especially in the field of French.

The language lab assistants care for the tapes, the microphones, and the machines in Shades Valley's modern language laboratory. Their services are essential to the upkeep of the equipment in the lab.

Language and Customs of France

The French Club is one of the most active interest clubs at Shades Valley. Its programs this year were directed toward a familiarity of the country whose language the members are learning. The programs have included films on the history and art of France, color slides of France taken by a member of the club, and a guest speaker from France.

Organizations . . . Extending Students' Horizons

Enthusiasm, responsibility, and competitions prevail among seventeen clubs at Shades Valley High School. These clubs bridge the interests of the students from classroom activities to high scholastic attainment and school and community service. A vital part of the school program, these organizations offer an opportunity for student recognition as well as a challenge to the group to become the most outstanding club in its field.

S.C. of S.V. Wins Vice Presidency of S.A.S.C.

The Student Council helps co-ordinate school activities and serves as a link between the student body and the faculty and administration.

This year the Student Council conducted Sophomore Orientation, planned Mountie Day, Twirp Week, Morning Watch, Holy Week Services, and a number of assembly programs, published the Red and Black, and helped boost school spirit by participating in pep rallies, chartering buses to football games, and selling booster buttons. In October the Student Council attended the Convention of the Southern Association of Student Councils in Jacksonville Beach, Florida, where Shades Valley was elected vice-president of the association. In February Shades Valley hosted a planning session for next year's convention.

The Interclub Council is composed of the presidents of the 30 different clubs at Shades Valley and is presided over by the 2nd Vice-President of the Student Council. Its purpose is to co-ordinate the total activities of the clubs. The clubs in the council perform many services of the school such as serving refreshments at dances, making posters, providing chaperones, and putting up decorations. Each month the Club of the Month Award is given to the best Interest Club, Service Club and Honor Club. At the end of the year a Presidents Banquet is held at which the Club of the Year Award is given.

NIIS Promotes Scholarship and Character

The National Honor Society seeks to promote high standards of character, scholarship, leadership, and service among the students of Shades Valley. The club recognizes outstanding students by distributing honor roll tags, publishing an honor roll, and holding biennial tappings. This year it gave the Outstanding Sophomore Award, sponsored a school dance, sold candy, helped needy families, provided a free tutorial service, and enthusiastically supported school activities.

Promoters Help Make Exchange Program Possible

The purpose of the Promoters Club is to promote good will and understanding between foreign nations and our school. At Christmas time the Promoters collected money in the homerooms which was used to buy Christmas presents for Vecihi, the foreign exchange student. Miss Barber, sponsor of the Promoters, took clothes, food, and other gifts bought by the members to the Jimmy Hale Mission during the Christmas holidays. The Promoters plan to make supporting the Jimmy Hale Mission a permanent project, and to donate to it on a monthly basis.

Lee Merk, member of the school Bank Board of Directors, receives a deposit from Donna McCoy, Jr. class teller.

The Shades Valley High School Savings Bank is open on Monday morning to all students and faculty for withdrawals and deposits. This Jr. Achievement Company operates through 59 homeroom tellers and 20 bank workers, under its 14 directors, its sponsor, Miss Woodson, and its advisor, Mrs. VanderVeer. The Bank Board of Directors became recognized as a club in 1964-65, entered a car in the Mountie Day Parade, joined the Interclub Council, and held open house on Father's Night. Other activities include giving a party for the highest banking homeroom, attending the J. A. banquet, and presenting programs at the junior high schools. This year's goal—1000 accounts in the Shades Valley Bank.

The Valley Forge is the first paper published by Shades Valley students in four years. This paper's success story exemplifies the spirit of Valley in true Mountie style. The Forge began as a remote idea in the minds of a few people. On November 21 this idea became reality. On this date the first issue was published, and it was a complete sell out. Since that there have been six additional issues, closing the year with a big eight page graduation edition. The Valley Forge was a tremendous addition to our school this year.

Morning Watch Provides a Moment of Meditation

Jack Wright, Herbie Stiles, and Alan Bialock greet a guest speaker, Maxie Vaughn, all-pro line backer of the Philadelphia Eagles.

Last spring a Religious Committee was formed. This committee set out to increase the attendance at Morning Watch, obtain American flags for every homeroom, help welcome new students, and serve as an open place of religious discussion for students of every denomination.

This year has been a terrific success because the Mounties wanted it to be. Morning Watch has averaged over 225 students daily with up to 850 on days of guest speakers. Sixty American flags were given to the school by Mr. Hall Thompson. Students of every religion have a place to express their wishes and desires.

Guest speakers have enlightened the day of many a student. Preachers from almost every church in the community have spoken. Spiritual Hootenannies proved very popular among the Mounties. The enlightenment of Morning Watch has been a help to every participating Valleyite.

A Story About

During the summer Susan McMillon and Dick Walker plot the pages of a real mystery, the '65 TOWER

Hide and Seek—Beverly Smith and Kathy Liggett file pictures into the right folders.

Once upon a time in room 213 there was a group of students known as the Tower Staff. Their one job was to produce a TOWER bigger and better than any ever before. At first they felt strong and daring, but soon the realities of such a formidable task had them reeling.

—Fishing for pictures, write ups, identifications, the work ensued. Past editions were consulted, conferences attended, publisher called. People offered to help; some came and went, some got lost, a few stayed, but all had a reunion when their picture was made. There was the fight for more time, attempts to make up lost time, and the striving to gain time. Finally the time came when the last shipment of pages was sent in to the publisher.

No erasures please; Typing required the efforts of everyone; even Susan Brasfield lent a hand.

Now the staff hopes that Mounties will enjoy their annual and have the time of their lives reliving the days in "The World Around the TOWER."

Rolls and Rolls of pictures had to be identified and indexed. Susan Brashfield and Penny Moses check through Linda Montoro's files.

All hands on deck—Last minute corrections get a once over by Sally, Dick, Mrs. Jones, Patti, and Lee Whitmore.

Summertime . . . And the Living Is Easy

Summer is a time for learning through new experiences and new friends. Days are crowded with jobs, community service, summer school, sports, and travel.

Mounties had rewarding experiences in fields ranging from construction jobs to voluntary hospital service. Other students attended summer school which enabled them to go to the college of their choice. For most, summer brought precious moments for enjoying favorite pastimes.

Never before have France, Spain, and Austria been so much a part of Valley as when they became the home of students studying abroad. Summer, indeed brings the world around Shades Valley closer to the tower.

Advancing Through Summer School

Valley's halls did not empty on May 31, of 1964, for more than 800 students attended summer school. Coach Tolson acted as principal during Dr. Peake's trip abroad with the Foreign Language League. Many new teachers joined members of Shades Valley's staff to make this one of the finest summer schools of the city.

Miss Margaret England, who did her practice teaching at Valley, returned as a full-fledged member of the staff. Here she is talking over the government course with Harry McCarter.

Coach Tolson and Coach Sims confer over the summer program.

Darlene Arnold, Martha Rast, Paul Bonnecarere, Bobby Dreyfus looked forward to this refreshing break between classes.

Mrs. Helen Stevens, Principal of Bluff Park Elementary School and a former teacher at Shades Valley, also returned to teach.

And Enjoying a Variety of Sports

Carol Carter enjoyed jumping her horse, Big Red, at Vestavia Country Club.

Clay Stiles kept up the courts at Birmingham Country Club when he was not busy playing tennis.

Joyce Ann Jackson, rated 13th in the nation, is shown at Leavenworth, Kansas, where she was a semi-finalist in the Women's Western Amateur.

Cathy Callaway, Bette McWhitney, and Pat Donovan found this the best way to cool off during the hot summer.

All aboard! Mrs. Tidwell, Ronnie Aland, and Preston Goldfarb hold the Valley banner before take-off.

Mounties Visit

Valleyites had a thrilling tour of Europe this summer, accompanied in Spain by Mrs. Gorrie and Mrs. Snider and in France by Mrs. McCall, Miss Evans, and Mrs. Tidwell. Students attended daily language classes, and on the week-ends they visited historic monuments and famous places throughout Europe. Through travel, Mounties obtained a vivid picture of the cultures of other peoples.

Bill Corr sees the sights in London with Nancy Cope, Rick Middleton, and Nan Tucker.

One of the high points of the tour was the visit to Mont St. Michel, an ancient French abbey built on a rocky island. The great epic poem of France, Song of Roland, was first told here in its dining hall!

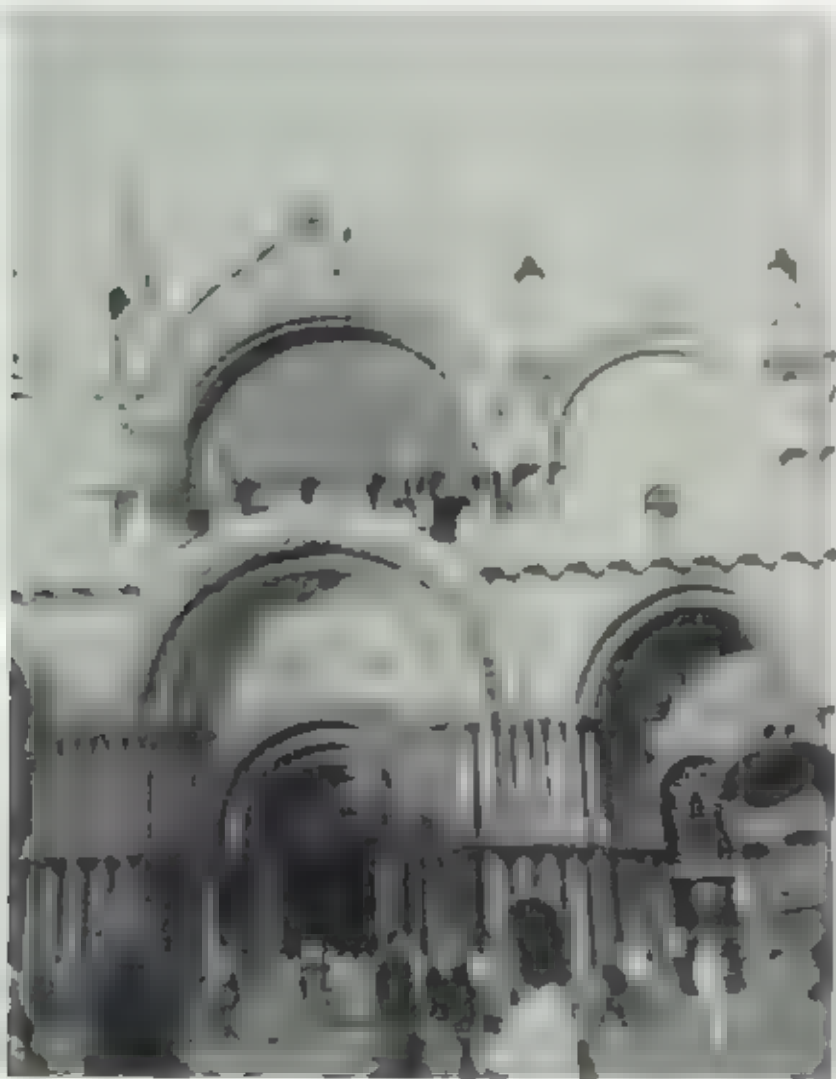

Foreign Lands.

Mounties abroad attended classes at the French school at Reims.

Mrs. McCall and the group enter the Tower of London.

Mounties were inspired by the Byzantine architecture of St. Mark's cathedral in Venice.

Valleyites see Switzerland during festival days.

Work and Leisure

In the recent election for merger of Mt. Brook and Birmingham, Charlotte Weaver answered the phone and gave general information in the anti-merger office.

Pete Moffett worked on the construction of the new highway.

While his parents were in Europe, Harold Ceitlin became the general manager of his father's store, the Vogue.

Calvin Moon carted groceries at a local supermarket.

Fill Summer Days

Giddyap! Diane Johnson enjoyed her burro ride in Mexico.

Away from the world of care, Debby Davis, Bobby Merrill, and Blair Cox had fun catching crawfish.

Fireworks were viewed from Vulcan on the Fourth of July.

Candystripers Linn Howell, Sally Jackson, and Pat Lewis were volunteer workers in University Hospital.

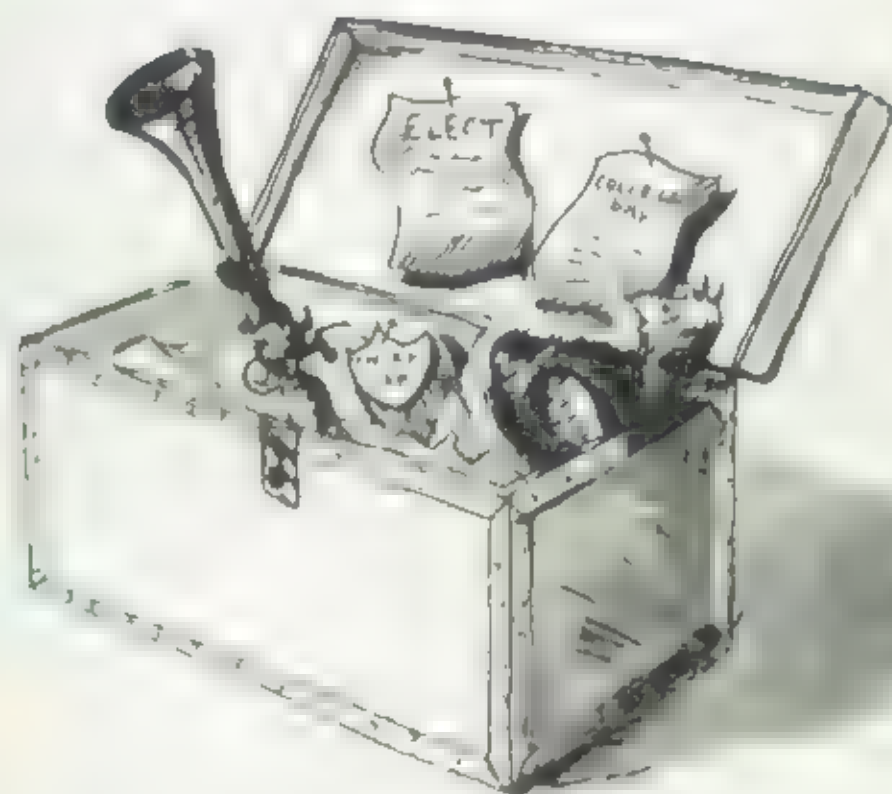

And so the summer of '64 drew to a close. Students returned to school with many memories . . . the exciting pavillions at the World's Fair . . . a bullfight in Spain . . . the reckless abandon of sports . . . new acquaintances . . . the pride and accomplishment in having a job . . . the pleasant relief of doing nothing . . . Experiences such as these made the summer world around the Tower memorable.

Main Events . . . Stimulating a World of Activity

Interspersed throughout the year at Valley are significant occasions in the student world. Some of these events have become tradition, necessary facets of Shades Valley School spirit. Mountie Day, College Day, the Tower Dance, Twirp Week, Showcase, National Merit Scholarship Test are times of fun and growth in the student's outlook of the world. They will be remembered, as will the important personalities who share in the activity of these occasions and who help to symbolize the real spirit of Shades Valley.

Special Days, Happenings and Occasions—

A time for school spirit . . .

A student's days at Valley are planned so there is time for individual development through varied experiences—planning, preparing, producing, and promoting. Each in his own way is given an opportunity to expand his talents, to work and play, that he may be aided in forming a philosophy and a set of personal values.

College Day . . .

Miss Hightower greets College Day representatives.

Mounties came face to face with planning their future when 38 college representatives came to Valley in the fall. Students received valuable information and guidance in choosing a college. This year's College Day, the best we've ever had, was planned by Miss Hightower and Bette McGibhoney.

Hostesses Gail Weaver and Linda Martin discuss the afternoon's program with the Southwestern delegate

Many Vallevites are interested in Harvard.

Planning for the Future

Pete Moffett and Allan Rowe talk with Washington and Lee's representative.

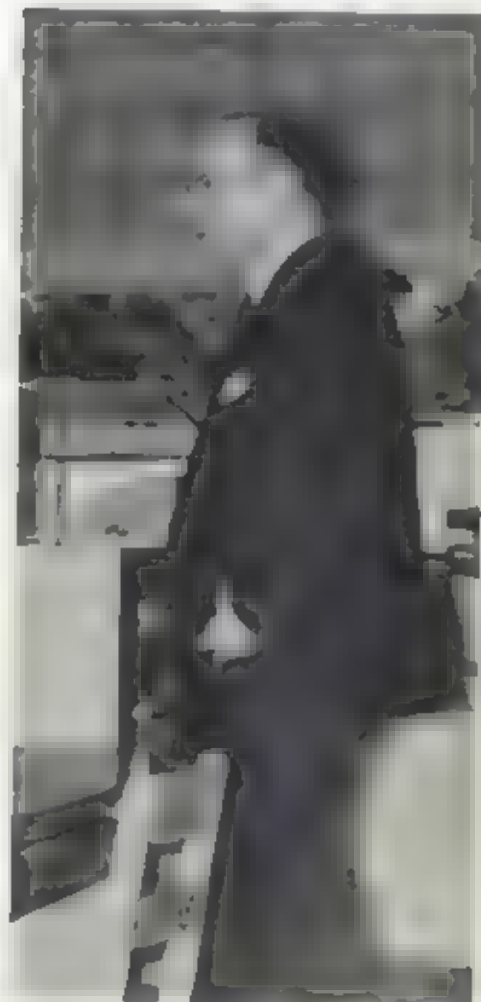

Girls, too, are interested in the U.S. Naval Academy

Seniors, Juniors, and Sophomores who had made the Honor Roll had three forty-five minute periods to talk with different delegates. Valleyites found the afternoon to be a successful "shopping" time, since so many national, as well as state schools were represented.

Vanderbilt's delegate discusses entrance requirements.

Valley Students Participate in

A spring band concert.

The school year is interspersed with several special activities which give students an opportunity to show their abilities, interests and enthusiasm. Outstanding among these events was the gaining of new curtains for the auditorium, a Saturday Pancake Jamboree, going over the top in magazine sales, and the Spring concert of Shades Valley's Band, rated the finest in the state.

Installation of the new curtains given by the Class of '64

The Home Ec. girls sponsored the Pancake Jamboree. Sylvia Cox, Lynn Crow, Cathy Conway, Pat Dorn, Ann Howell, Patsy McLane, Carol Craven, Amelia Stough, Eugenia Twitty, Harriet Evans, Linda Sue Falls.

The Senior Class sold more magazines in '65 than any other class in the history of the school $15,703.15. Dery Brice, top salesman; Herbie Stiles, and Betty McGibboney color the thermometer.

Outstanding Events and Activities

Louise Moody, Mrs. Fitzgibbon, Susan Atkins, Debby Smith, and Melissa Houseal enjoy refreshments after the National Honor Society tapping.

Three honor clubs at Shades Valley hold their tapplings in the Large Auditorium and during Activity Period, the National Honor Society, the French National Honor Society, and the Spanish National Honor Society. Following the tapplings there is usually a reception for the new members and their parents.

Following the French National Honor Society tapping, a reception was held in the Practice House for the new members and their parents. Jo Lyn Barrett, Judy Odum, Donna Staff, M. Susan McMillon, and Sally Stone enjoy the good food.

Lex Cooper is tapped into the Spanish National Honor Society.

Enjoying Moliere's Comedy

Time out for pointers as Mrs. Walker confers with Monsieur Jourdain, David Hewson.

Bruce Boucher (center) goes over the details of a scene with Steve Williams, Willard Whitson, Marc Howard, and Charles Parker during dress rehearsal.

In November, Moliere's comedy, "The Would-be Gentleman" was produced through the joint efforts of Thespians and the Art and Speech Departments. The successful performance was the result of long hours of rehearsal on the part of actors, sponsors, and crews. A satire on the social climber, the play was authentically produced with 17th century costumes and setting representative of the time of Louis XIV.

Dear Mounties

What a year this has been. I really expected it to be great, but how could I know the real meaning of the word "great" until I had lived in The Valley for a while.

It is difficult to explain - but I've never felt like a foreigner here. You all are so friendly, that I've realized from the beginning that I am one of you. New friends did not seem like new friends but more like oldest and best friends.

The way that students govern themselves, the way that teenagers earn their own spending money, the custom of meeting parents when boys pick up their dates, the tradition of becoming a real mountie on Mountie Day, the confusion of the presidential election, the excitement of seeing Santa Claus (!) with 16 years of presents, the pride of being a groom's man in my American brother's wedding, the pleasure of giving tickets to girls on Trip week, the fun of vacationing at the Gulf Shores with my family, these are some of the things which helped me to understand America better.

The teachers are my friends. They are intelligent and have sweet hearts. They always are ready to help, which I did not expect. My knowledge is increasing every moment. When I remember my first days or even months in the U.S.A. I laugh to myself.

I really loved being in USA. I am glad that I lived in Alabama. I am doubly glad that I lived in B'ham. I am triple glad that I was in Shades Valley. I was not born a Mountie but I will be a Mountie.

May my best wishes be with MOUNTIES and SHADES VALLEY, forever.

Miss Shades Valley

Representing the Spirit of Shades Valley is Bette McGiboney, one of the most popular and active members of the Senior Class. Miss Shades Valley is elected by the faculty for her outstanding leadership and service to Shades Valley. Bette has had ample opportunity to display her fine qualities as Treasurer of the Senior Class, co-editor of the Red and Black and College Day chairman. She has set a high standard for Shades Valley girls to follow.

Keeping up with her friends.

Reviewing past events.

Making with the music

Mr. Shades Valley

Jack Wright exemplifies the finest qualities to be found in a Shades Valley boy. As chaplain of the Student Council he had brought inspiration to many by organizing Morning Watch, Holy Week, Morning devotionals announced over the intercom and performing the many other duties pertinent to his office. By being Mr. Mountie at athletic events, Jack has manifested his school spirit. His services have won him the title of Mr. Shades Valley.

Lowly Twirps Have Their Day With

Go, go, go! Coach Jackson auctions off handsome slaves to eager Twirps.

Along with hearts and flowers, Valentine's Day brings to Valley that event that strikes terror in the hearts of all girls—Twirp Week! During this time, the twirp (at other time this miserable creature is called a girl) is expected to carry books, open doors, and keep quiet unless spoken to by a boy. The Twirp with the shortest arms inevitably is chosen to carry the highest stack of books, and Twirp cops devise all sorts of subtle torments to those suspected of not having a license. If the Twirp has sympathetic friends she may collect enough money to purchase a slave at the Slave Auction at an unreasonable price. Twirps with rebellious spirits are judged guilty at a Twirp Court according to their crimes. The Twirp Dance and election of the King and Queen of Hearts, presided over by Ole King Twirp highlights the week's activities, and compensates for a week of CRIME AND PUNISHMENT.

Money, Money, Money! Debby Davis, Andrea Hasty, Mary Duffey, Dana Bass stack up the coins from the slave sales.

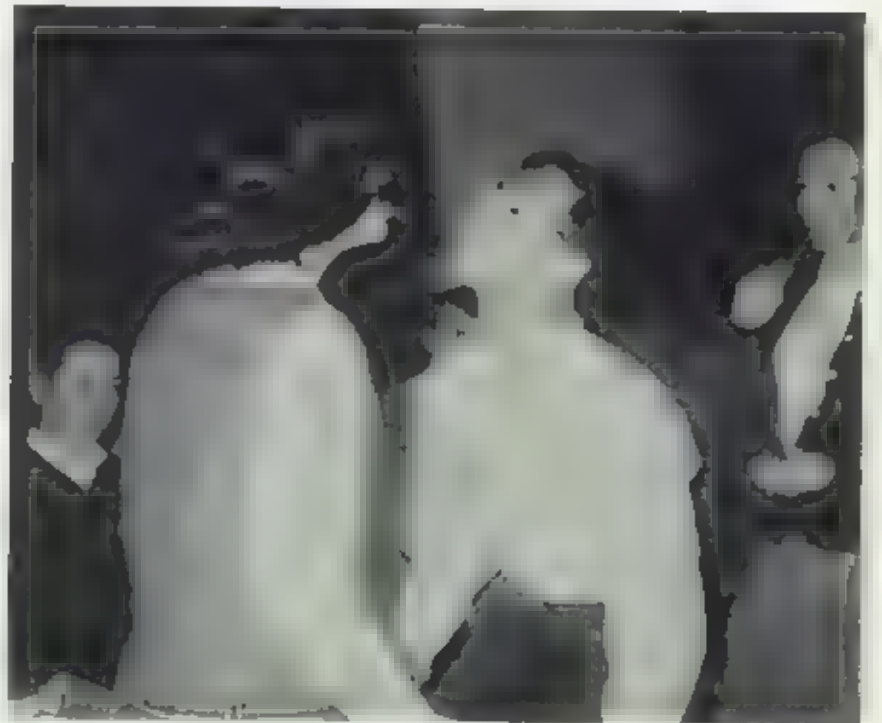

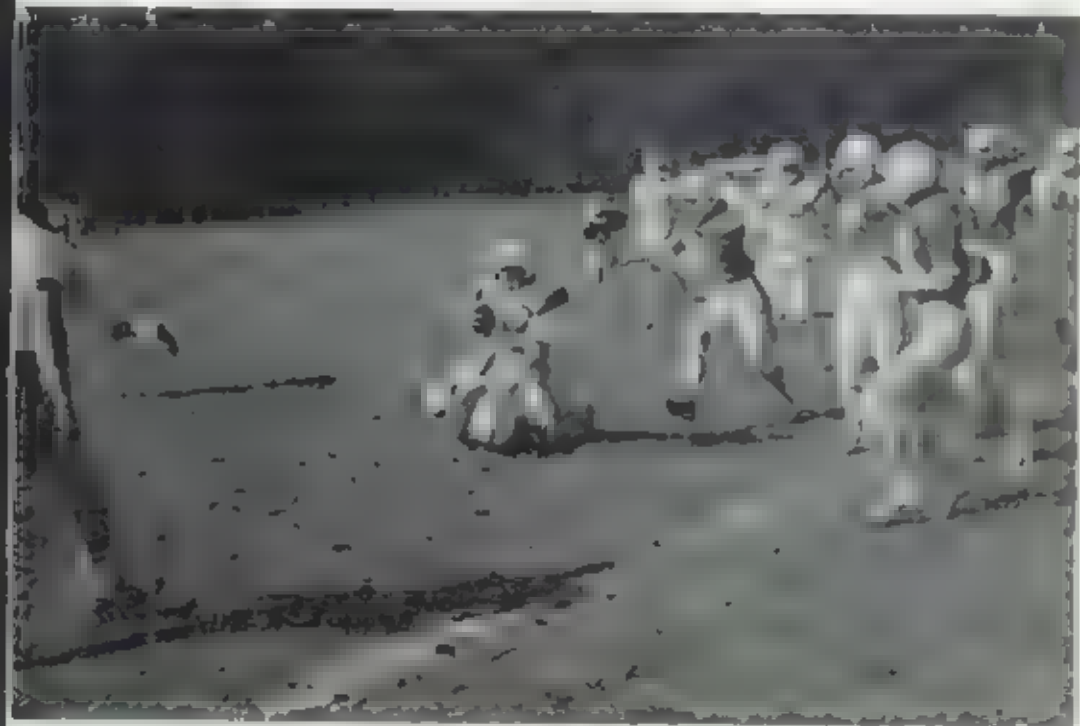

Honorable Judges Joe Ellis, Bill Corr, Jack Wright, Bill Cobb, Kae Nelson prepare to open court.

Pie never tasted so sweet as when Ann Howe, Jenny Williams, Charlotte Weaver, and Linda Trotter paid their fines.

Shades Valley's cheerleaders show off rare form for the Twirp game.

Ole King Twirp, Alan Blaylock, reigns over the court while King and Queen of Hearts Van Corr and Marsha Thompson look on.

Thespians Produce "No Time for Sergeants"

David Hewson blocks the scene in which Sgt King welcomes the inductees

Charles Parker, Jack Mills, Marc Howard, David Hewson, Steve Williams, and Ted McCormack rehearse their lines.

In March, Thespians produced the rollicking Army comedy, "No Time for Sergeants." This amusing play about Will Stockdale, the backwoods draft dodger, was a great success. It was the second Thespian production of the year.

Zack Godwin as Will Stockdale and Steve Williams as his friend Ben in a scene from "No Time for Sergeants."

After rehearsal, Mrs. Walker suggests improvement to Kathy Lizzett, Ben Hogan, Jack Mills, Shelia Jackson, Reed Reese and Steve Williams

Interscholastic Sports . . . Teaching Points That Count

A cheerleader's yell, the hard contact of football players, the final buzzer of a basketball game, the umpire's call of . . . STRIKE, the whack of tennis and golf balls, all combine with the other sounds of the high school's sports world to make up the athletic program of Shades Valley. As Valley's spectators and players go from game to game and community to community they not only take the name of Valley to many parts of the state, but they constantly display the great spirit and sense of fair play for which the Mounties are known. Though the game may not always be won, self discipline, sportsmanship and courage, points, which we value in the game of life, have been gained through participation in the interscholastic sports program.

Gridiron Greats of Valley

The Mountie football team showed they were both hard hitting and fair fighting during the 1964 season. Although eleven starting players were injured at the first of the season, Mountie determination proved worthy opponents as they rushed over 2100 yards to 1800 for the opposition. Despite the fact that not all our games were victories, our total points were 117 to our opponents' 96. The '64 Valley team was indeed a football team we can be proud of.

VALLEY PLAYERS HONORED

Five members of the team will be remembered for their outstanding performance during the 1964 season. Lee Parker punted consistently and was selected for the All-County Team. Also chosen for the All-County Team were Jack McKewen, tackle; Herbie Stiles, fullback; and Alan Blalock, quarterback. Tim Smith rated Honorable Mention. These players attributed valuable assistance to the other players of the team and helped to uphold true Valley Spirit.

JONES VALLEY SLIPS THROUGH MOUNTIES FINGERS

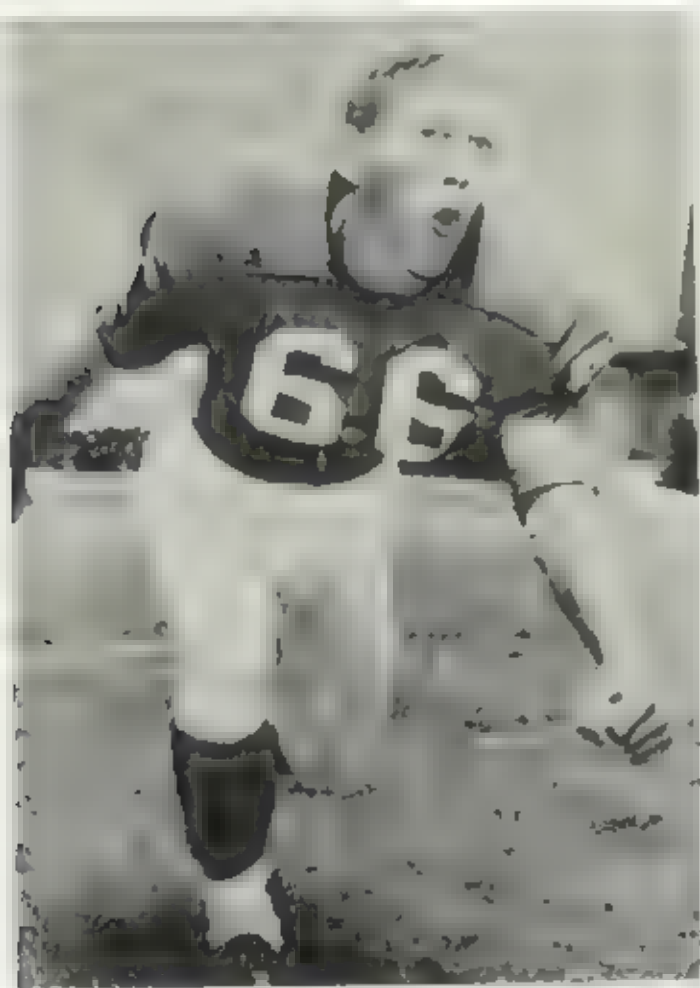

In their opening game of the season the Mounties faced a hard hitting Jones Valley team. Add this to a rainy field and several bad breaks and you have disaster. The Valley boys did their best but were defeated by the Brownies 7-2. Jones Valley's touchdown came late in the third quarter. It was third down and long yardage; Jack Traffenstadt ran wide around right end and scampered 34 yards before defenders could pull him down. The Mounties' only points of the night came also on an effort by Traffenstadt. After Jones Valley had been put back deep in its own territory by a Lee Parker's punt, Traffenstadt fell on the ball in the end zone and this gave the Mounties 2 points.

FAIRFIELD NIPS VALLEY 20-13

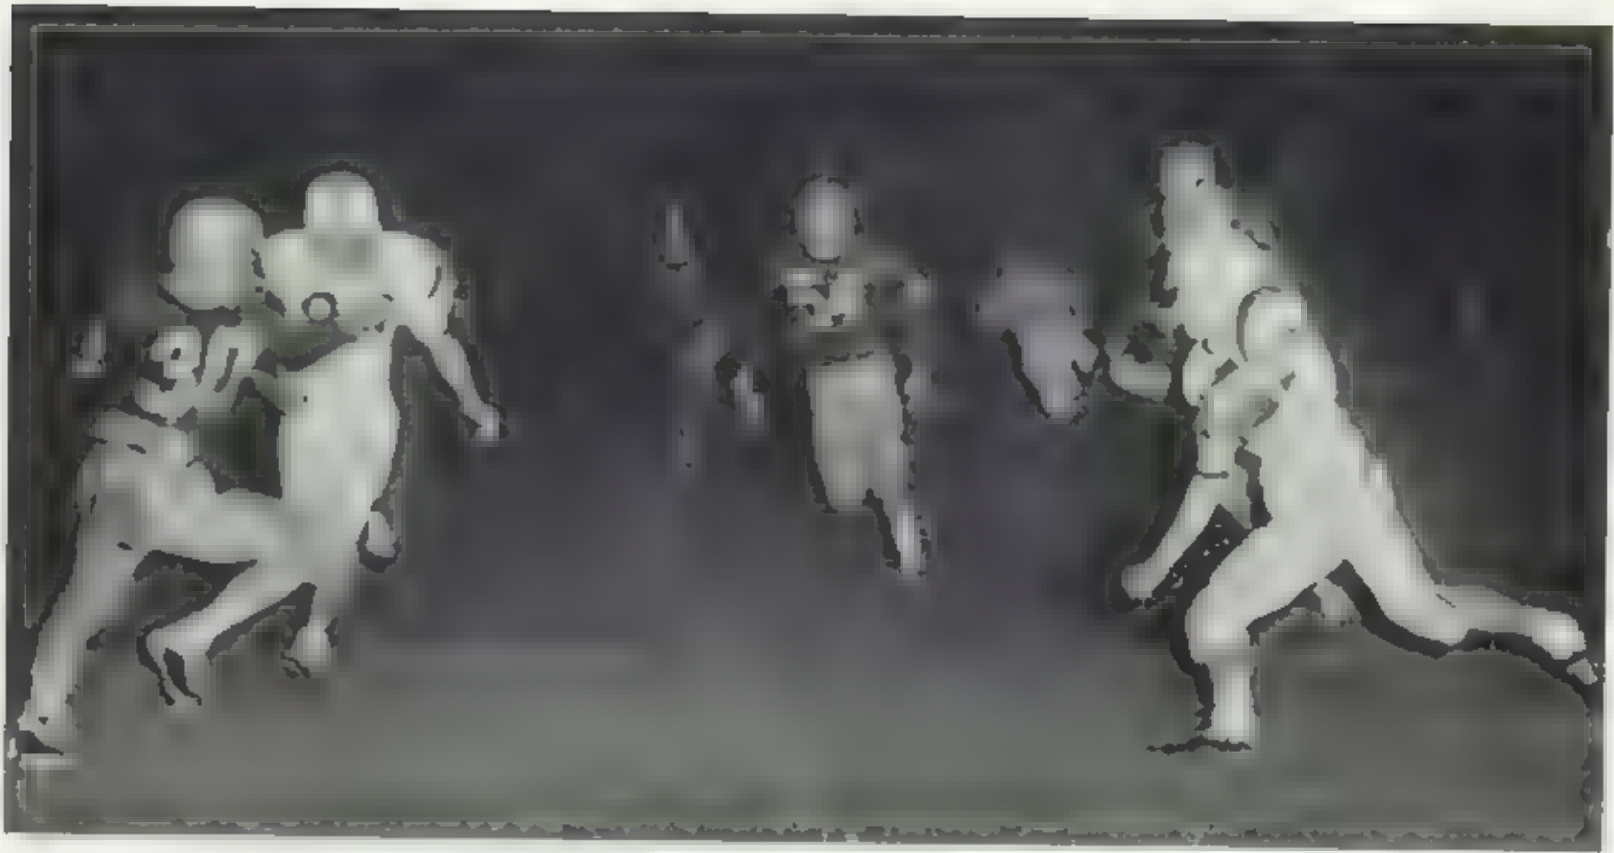

In their second game of the season the Mounties found the Fairfield Tigers tough. The Mounties couldn't stop the end sweeps by Tommy McKay and even with their new quarterback Alan Blalock who completed 12 out of 17 passes and halfback Tim Smith who carried 10 times for 114 yards, the Mounties were able to put no more than 13 points on the scoreboard. Valley dropped their second game of the season to Fairfield 20-13.

VALLEY TRAMPLES HEWITT

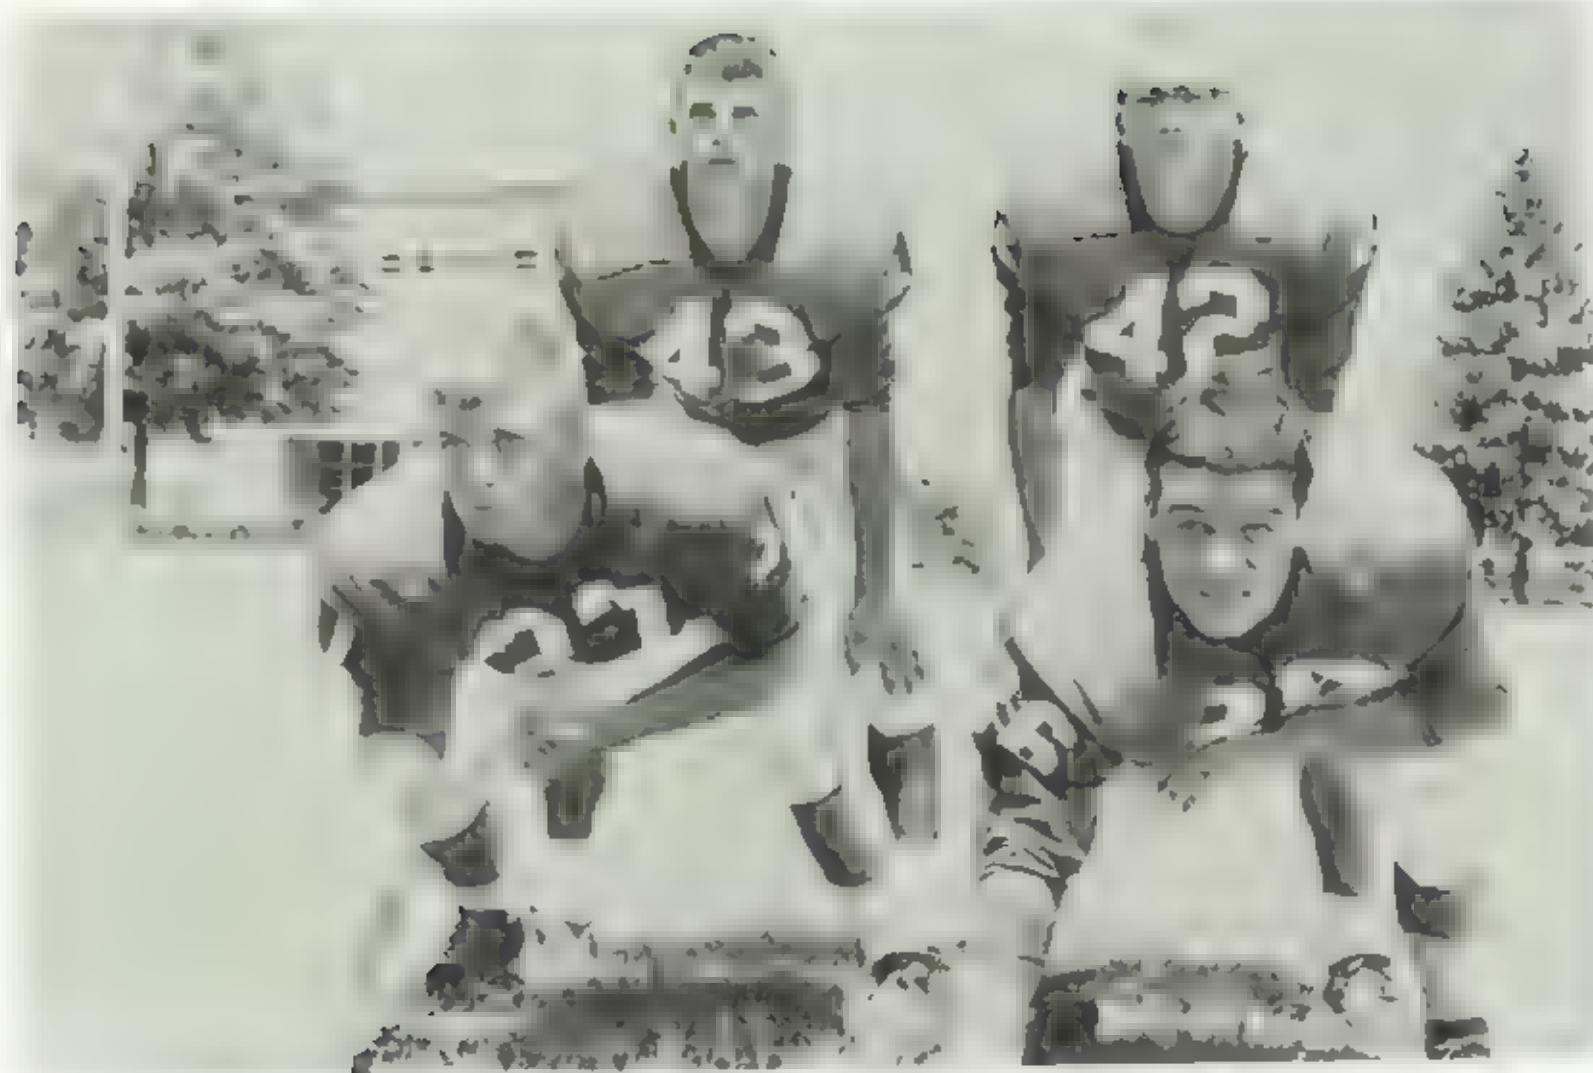

Valley got into the winning side by defeating Hewitt 20-0. The Mounties defense was solid while the offense was strong. Every player on Valley's squad played an excellent game that night. To name just a few: FB, Herbie Stiles; HBS, Tim Smith and Blair Orstadt; QB Alan Blalock; T, Jack McKewen; G, Alan Baker; E, Tim Mitch. The most outstanding player of the game was Lee Parker and for his performance he received the Jeff. Co. "Lineman of the Week Award," presented to him by the B'ham Post Herald.

ONE UP AND ONE DOWN FOR VALLEY

Things looked bright for the Mounties as they defeated West End 27-7. There were many individual standouts in the game such as Ken Moore, Steve Swalley, Bobby Hutson, and Blair Orstadt.

Even though spirited crowds came to the homecoming game, Valley still received a defeat at the hands of Ensley. The Mounties team effort was not enough to offset the defeat of 26-0.

VALLEY STOMPS BESSEMER

Everyone on Valley's bench except the manager and even he wanted to had a part in Valley's 11-6 win over Bessemer. By scoring three TDs in each half and allowing the Tigers to score only once, Valley showed that we had a well-rounded team. Jim McWhorter was the leading scorer of the night as he made two of Valley's six touchdowns. For his outstanding performance in this game, Alan Blacklock, Mountie Quarterback, was presented the Jeff. Co. "Back of the Week" award by the B'ham Post Herald, and became the second Mountie to receive this honor.

CLOSE GAMES PROVE EXCITING

Shades Valley in probably its greatest effort of the season was defeated by Tarrant 3-0. Valley came close but Tarrant's Alvin Samples kicked a field goal in the third quarter which left the victory to Tarrant.

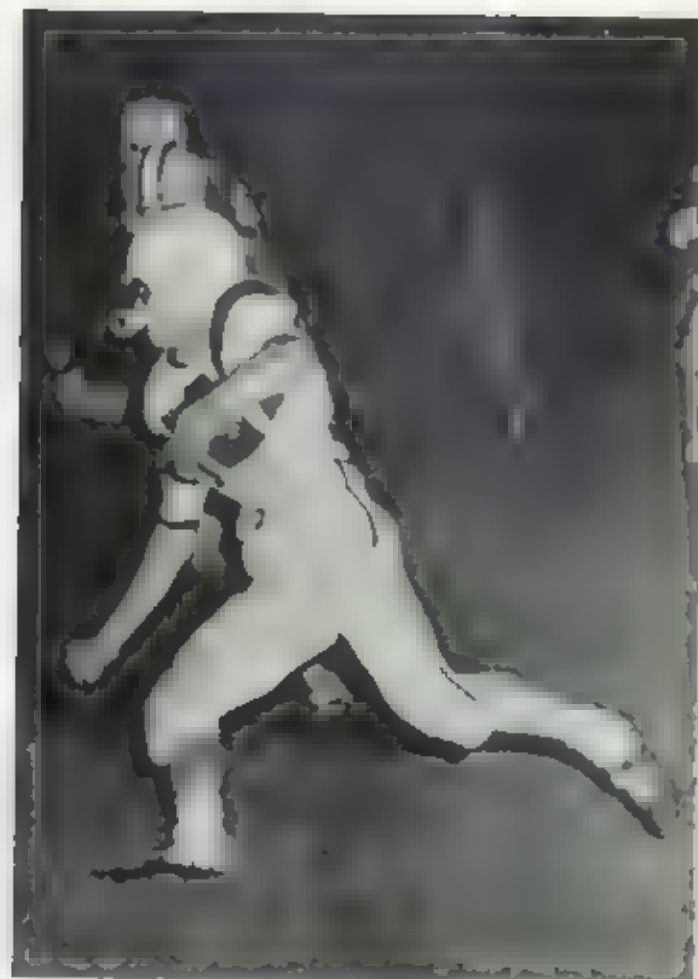

The Mounties jumped to an early lead against the Gophers and held it for the first half. The score stood 7-0. In the second half the tide turned. An unbelievable catch by the Gophers changed the figures to read Gophers-13, Valley-7.

Blalock finds going tough here.

Swally receives a pass at the 10, turns, and runs toward the goal.

BERRY'S FIRST SENIOR TEAM MEETS VALLEY PLAYERS

Berry's team proved a worthy match for Shades Valley. Lee Parker's timely block of an attempted quick kick and Jim Hart's recovery set the ball up for a T.D. pass by Blalock. At the half the score stood 7-7. Not until the middle of the 4th quarter did Berry break the deadlock with a freak turn of play and a pass for their second T.D., giving this game to Berry 14-7.

JOHN McKIBBON

From football, baseball, track, tennis and swimming to the P.E. program our coaches, Jackson, Sims, Tolson and Legg do an excellent job of training the boys to participate in all sports events.

After the last ball game is over there is still one big event that climaxes the season, the banquet. The '64-'65 Football Banquet will always be remembered by those who attended. Coach Legg awarded the letters, and the gold footballs were given to the graduating seniors by the Shades Valley Athletic Association. Al Baker, Herb Sules, Jack McKewen, and Alan Blalock, receive their trophies from Coach Legg.

Mounties Shoot for High Record

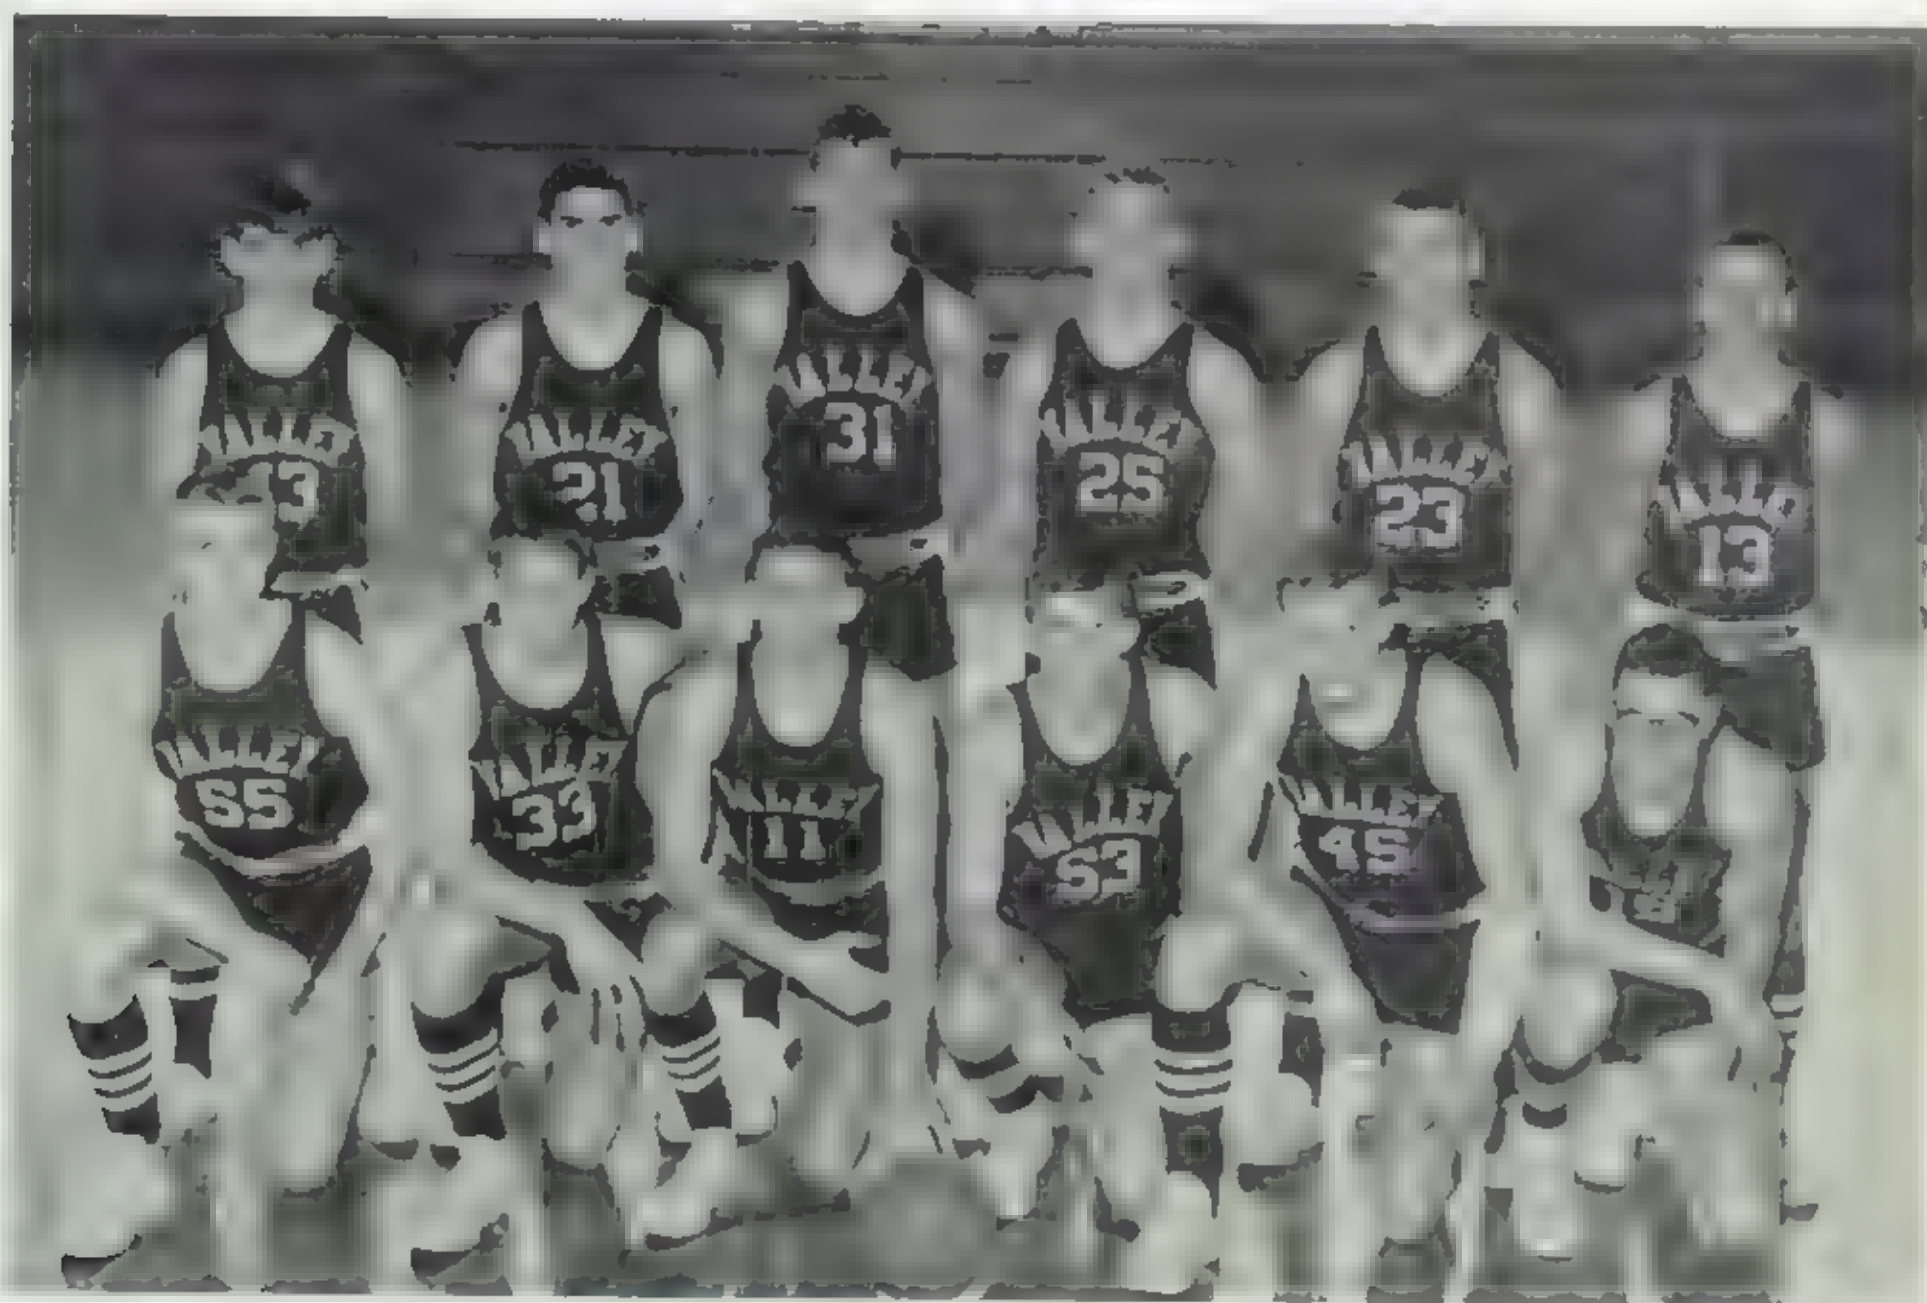

The 1964-65 Season was mainly a rebuilding year as the team lost 10 of their former players.

This year's squad was composed of three seniors, four juniors, and five sophomores. All of these boys started several games and saw a considerable amount of action as did two additional juniors and two more sophomores who helped to round out the team at the end of the season.

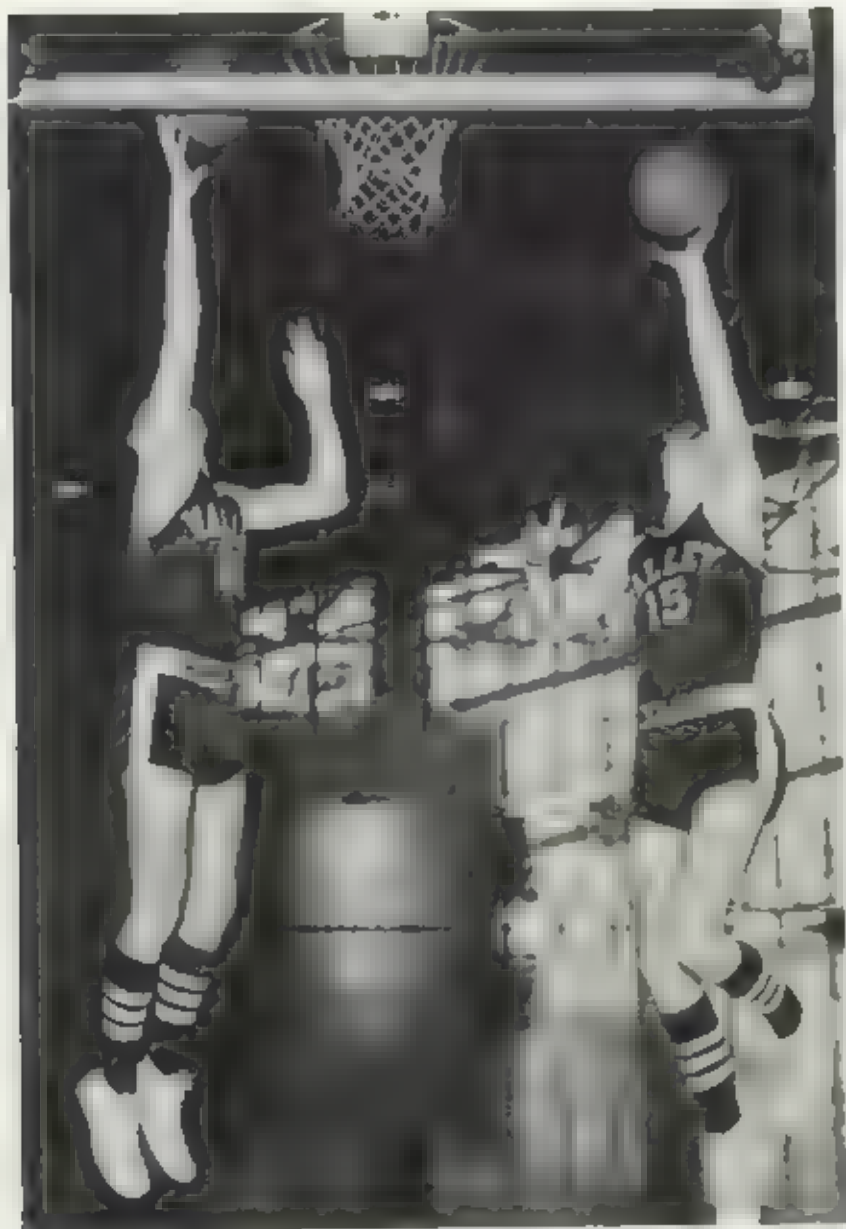

Tom Yeilding's pre-season broken arm and Preston Goldfarb's illness caused them to miss several games which hurt the Mounties in key spots.

Jimmy Grayson paced the squad in rebounding and Bill Corr and Sam Stutts paced the scorers. Preston Goldfarb and Bill Corr sparkled on defense.

Key Mountie wins were over Banks, Vigor, Jones, Valley, Mortimer Jordon, Tarrant and Ramsay.

TOM YEILDING, 6'2" Senior forward—captain "Yeilding spent most of the season recovering from a broken arm, but exhibited fine leadership and scoring ability for the Mounties."
 JIMMY GRAYSON, 6'1" Junior forward "Grayson started every game and led the squad in rebounding."

BILL CORR, 5'10" Junior guard "Corr led the squad in scoring with a 14 point average and was an outstanding hustler."
DUANE COSHATT, 5'10" Senior guard "Coshatt's performance against Banks and Ramsay sparked his team to victory."

TOMMY SMITH, 6'1" Junior forward "Smith was a part time regular and was a real scrapper."
DON COKER, 6'1" Junior forward "Coker showed signs of being a fine shooter and rebounder."

"B" Team Has Successful Season

The Mountie "B" team, coached by Coach Bobby Jackson, had a very successful season in 1965. The members of the "B" team are sure to be valuable assets for next year's Varsity squad.

Valleyites Follow Through in Golf and Tennis

GOLF TEAM

From the whack of the first tee shot to the sound of a dropping putt on the 18th green, our golf team once again led Valley to glory. With returning lettermen, Sam Farlow, Charles Wilcox, and Jackie Adams who were backed up by several new members, Valley proved itself a worthy opponent for its foes.

TENNIS TEAM

Murray Tyson, who ranked #1 in the Alabama 16-year-old division and #2 in the high school competition, and Ross Forman, who had a very successful season last year, were Valley's returning lettermen in tennis. Coached by Coach Tolson, the 1965 team upheld Valley's tennis record.

Track Team Vaults

Field Events . . .

From the crack of the starting gun of their first track meet, to the sound of the huffing and puffing of the third lap around the track, our track team ran Valley to glory as usual. Though it missed the services of Ralph Byram and Bob Barrett who injured their ankles, new members of the team: Bill Pugh, Ken Jones, and Don Bolton, all helped Valley have another good season. Returning lettermen are: Jim Redd, hurdles; Gene Hightower and Joe Ellis, 440; Mark Krebs, mile; and Jim Kirk, shot put and discus.

Cheerleaders and "S" Club

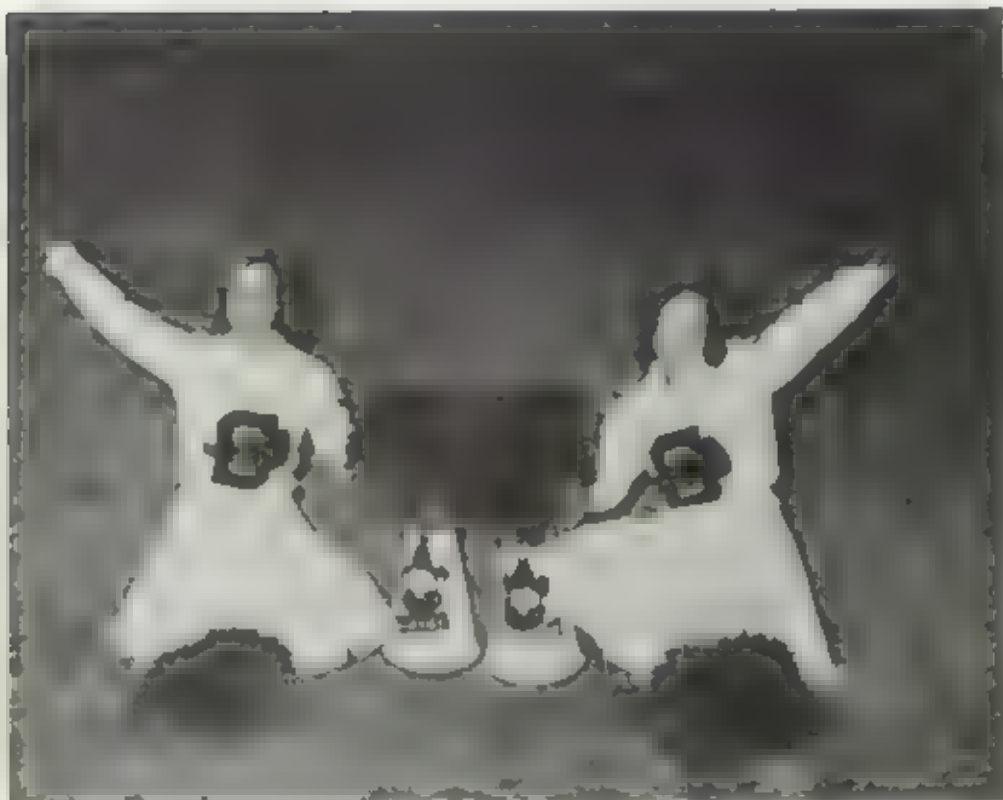

Andrea Hasty and Mary Anne Holmes

Margaret Alverson and Anita Shaw

The Cheerleaders kept the school spirit high this year. They are responsible for all pep posters around the school, pep rallies, and decorations at games. Each year the cheerleaders select the student who most exemplifies the spirit of Shades Valley and present to him the Carol Brewton Award.

Mary Duffey and Nancy Davies

Kae Nelson and Jan Andrews

Promote School Spirit

Jenny Andrews and Sharon Andrews

Louise Moody and Georgia Boone

The "S" Club is composed of those boys who received a letter in any sport, and the cheerleaders. The club sponsored several projects, held its annual teacher vs. the "S" Club basketball game, and climaxed the year with the "S" Club picnic.

Classes . . . Living to Learn

From Homewood, Mountain Brook, Cahaba Heights, and Irondale come 2000 people to Shades Valley High School. Seven hundred of them are sophomores, timid and anticipating three long years of work at Valley. There are six hundred fifty seasoned juniors prepared to chase Moby Dick and settle Jamestown with American ideals. But lording over all are six hundred fifty seniors who are anxious to uphold Valley's standing in the community. Each class is made up of people—individuals who come from different worlds, who meet briefly in this world at Valley, and who travel on to a broader world which they are better prepared to meet because of their years at Shades Valley High School.

Jimmy McWhorter, vice-pres.; Lynn Crow, treas.; Blair Cox, pres.; Lynn Edwards, sec.

As the new Sophomores entered Shades Valley they did not quite know what to do or what to expect. Coming from several smaller schools, they seemed to be engulfed by the vastness of Valley. However, soon the walls began to close in enough to make them feel like a part of things. Shortly after school started, the eager sophomores were handed a host of different clubs at Valley. In order that they might not be called unenthusiastic, they started joining the clubs as fast as they could. The clubs seemed to grow overnight. Soon the sophomores had become used to the everyday routine of Valley. However, "easy-going it" did not stay long. First came the election of class officers, then homecoming, next election of class favorites, and then TWIRP week. There was one exciting thing after another, and the sophomores took full advantage of it all. As the year ended, the sophomores were no longer the bewildered, inexperienced "youngsters," but were typical Shades Valley Mounties. They were all ready to leave the bottom of the ladder to next year's bewildered ones, and to advance one rung upward.

Juniors Uphold School Traditions

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS

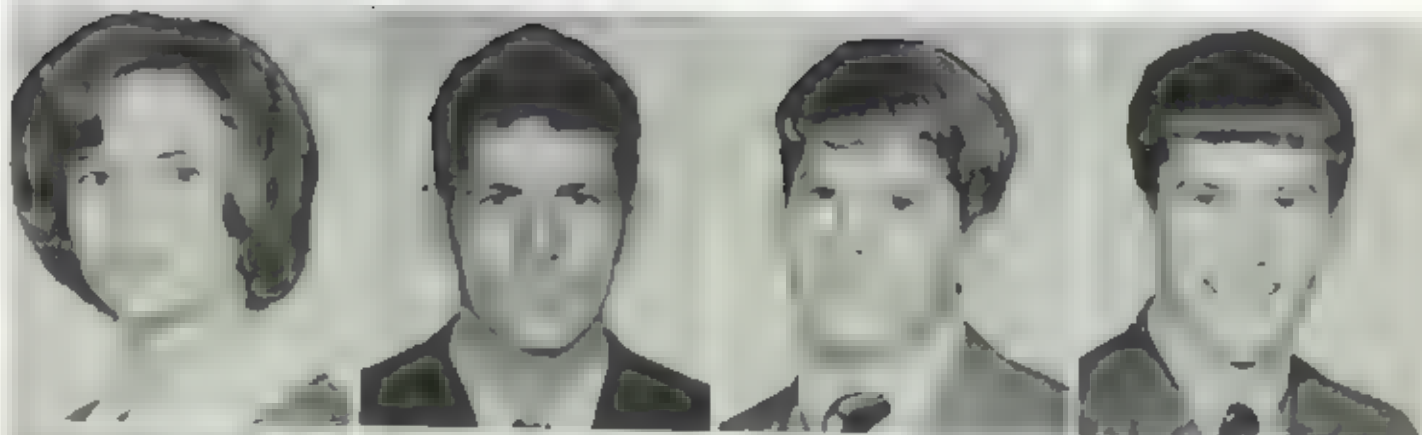

Seated: Anita Shaw, Secretary; Carla Ellis, Vice-President; Nancy Davies, Treasurer. Standing: Mary Duffy, Girls' Activity Chairman; Bill Corr, President; Dale Sitton, Boys' Activity Chairman.

The Junior Class of 1965 did an excellent job of supporting Shades Valley. Along with a very successful Junior-Senior Prom, they contributed a multitude of Green Stamps, and showed the Seniors up by winning the Powder Puff Football Game.

There was an old woman
Who lived in a shoe
She had so many children
She didn't know what to do
She sent them all to Valley
To learn to write and read

Then bought a candid camera
To record their every deed
So whether they were playing
Or in a class or two
Now we have their pictures
To place for your review.

There was an old woman who lived in a shoe, she had so many children she didn't know what to do . . . Juniors in Assembly.

David Hewson and David Walbert review the technical cues for lights.

One of Mrs. Foley's better students.

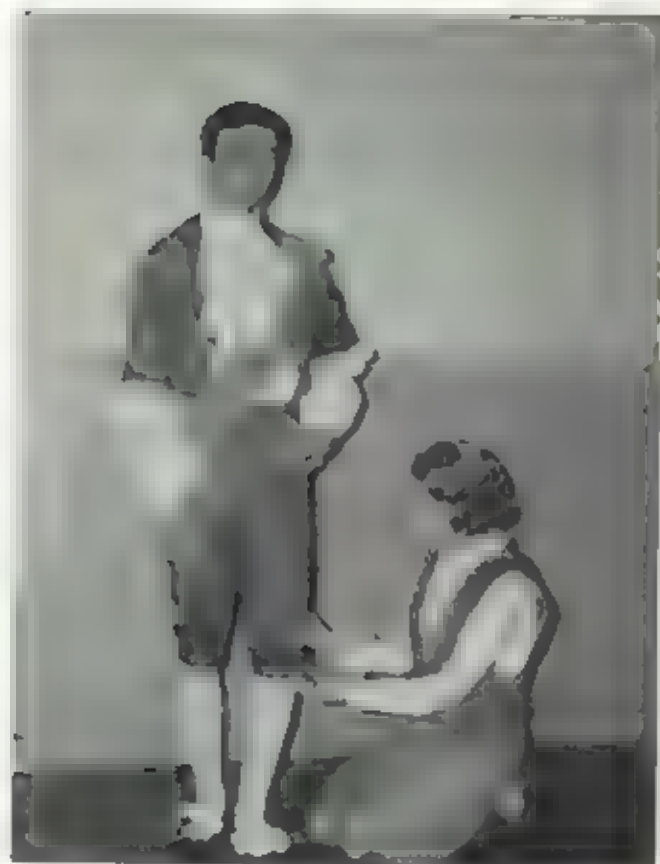

TWO BITS, FOUR BITS . . . Cheerleaders practice after school.

Mrs. Foley's classes fill their window with unusual specimens . . . do juniors really think like this?

Mrs. Wakefield and students discuss the shape the world is in.

Claire Black stitches up David Walbert's costume.

The Junior-Senior Prom was a tremendous success.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Seated: Susan Atkins, Girls' Activity Chairman; Nan Tucker, Secretary; Louise Moody, Vice President. Standing: Bette McGiboney, Treasurer; Vecihi Basarin, Boys' Activity Chairman; Herbie Stiles, President; Susan Butler, Assistant Treasurer.

In the years past Shades Valley has graduated many outstanding classes and this year was no exception. The 1965 Class has accomplished much in its short stay at Valley. The fact that we had twenty-six Merit Scholarship Finalists shows our scholastic ability. Because of this great ability, we do not have a valedictorian and salutatorian but six Honor Graduates and seven students who received honorable mention.

When we remember these honors we will also remember the fun we have had together: the Senior Class meetings, magazine sales with Mr. Amos and Mr. Parker, raiding Sophomore and Junior Christmas Parties, and our own wonderful party.

And so, before we leave our high school days behind, we would like to thank all of the faculty for their untiring efforts and especially for their understanding. There is no doubt that, as the years pass and we become adults, we will fully appreciate our high school teachers.

It has been a great honor for us to be members of the '65 graduating class, and we would wish that every graduating class have as much fun as we have had at Valley.

Seniors Achieving Outstanding Academic Records

This year for the first time Shades Valley High School is recognizing two very special groups of Graduating Seniors. This will be a departure from the traditional Valedictorian and Salutatorian pattern. Pictured above are our Honor Graduates. These six graduates have maintained better than an "A" average for their four year high school career and deserve very special commendation for this outstanding achievement.

Below are our seven graduating Seniors whose records for their four years of high school are only one quality point short of an "A" average. Certainly these students are outstanding and deserve congratulations.

Vickie Wachsmen, Melinda McKinney, Susan Bethea, Margaret Ingram. (not pictured—Laurie Glass, Kae Nelson, Kathy King)

It has been such a short time since we first entered these halls and found that Shades Valley was not really so hard as we expected; there were just too many pursuits more attractive than studying.

Will any of us ever forget how we felt when our first report cards came out, how our Sophomores Snowball didn't materialize, how much we enjoyed the Student Council skits that year, or how great it was to have a winning football team? We chose Tim McIntyre our Sophomore Class president, and Nan Tucker started her career of winning beauty contests as Sophomore Attendant in the Homecoming Court. By the end of the year we had decided that Mountie Day should come every week, that Slave Auctions were too expensive, and that studying was a necessary evil.

As Juniors we began to show more of our capabilities and school spirit; our class made itself felt in every organization in the school. Athletics, dramatics, art, music, clubs, College Day, Mountie Day, Twirp Week. Student Council—we were drawn into all these activities. Our Junior Class President was Herbie Stiles, whose leadership has continued through our senior year.

We experienced the thrill of another winning football team, the horrors of College Boards, the fun of our Junior-Senior Prom and the high hopes of being Seniors next year. Student Council elections came in the Spring, bringing surprises for everyone, including the candidates, and we entered our Senior year under a female regime.

In the Fall we found that we had a new addition to our class—Veei, our foreign exchange student who had come all the way from Adana, Turkey, to study at Shades Valley. We had another wi—, well, we had another football team. The cheerleaders, headed by Jenny and Sharon Andrews, and our Mr. Mounties along with ten-thousand booster buttons, raised our spirit sky-high.

Who said we couldn't do it? Our magazine sales soared right past those of last year's seniors with no trouble at all. $5,750.00 make us the wealthiest Senior Class in Shades Valley history.

We put our class on top in every other way, too. Mountie Day was the biggest yet; our parade jammed traffic for two hours. In November, College Day, headed by Betty McGibboney, brought to Shades Valley representatives from more than 38 colleges. The Student Council officers attended the convention of the Southern Association of Student Councils in Jacksonville Beach, Florida, and came back not with suntans, but with the office of vice-president of that organization. Our twenty-six National Merit Scholarship Finalists showed that we had brains, and for the first time since we had been at Valley, we had a newspaper, The Valley Forge, thanks to the efforts of members of our class. And our mock election—in our hearts we knew who was right! Our Senior Christmas party and Shields "Santa Claus" Parker put us in the holiday mood in a big way.

On the other hand, we wouldn't be human without our little failures. So what if the Red and Black didn't come out until January? And the slow Tower sales—well, blame it on the Sophomores! And speaking of failures, our first semester exams reminded us that in four short months we would be leaving.

We moved on through Twirp Week; the girls in the Powder Puff game showed the boys how football should be played; and all Shades Valley's malicious law-breakers were duly punished in Twirp Court. Class Day, the Senior Prom, and finally graduation will always hold memories for each member of this class.

The rare personality and the unusual accomplishments of this year's seniors have made it Shades Valley's greatest class—the Class of 1965.

CLASS HISTORIAN

The time to leave you Valley
 Is quickly drawing nigh
 With mixed emotions we do say
 To you a fond good-bye.
 It seems like only yesterday
 We entered through your doors
 And found ourselves completely lost
 Throughout your crowded floors.
 As Sophomores we really learned things
 Tardiness brought detention
 Such minor things like smoking
 Brought immediate suspension!
 But as that first year drifted by
 Some new techniques we found
 The quickness of going down the "up" stairs
 And like-wise up the "down."
 Next we all were Juniors
 Except for those who liked to play
 They had great fun being Sophomores
 And so they stayed that way!
 A part of you we were that year
 Sharing our tears and laughter
 These are the times that will linger
 In our minds forever after.
 The election of the Student Council
 And the joys A.E.A. can bring,
 Will any of us ever forget the day
 We ordered our senior rings?
 The summer passed so quickly
 September came so fast
 And suddenly we were SENIORS
 The final goal at last!
 Mr. Parker said, "Ya'll are sucking wind,
 '64 cannot be beat."
 He sportingly lived to eat his words
 As he bowed before our feet.
 You taught us a lot, dear Valley
 On the path to reach maturity
 And we shall leave your hallowed halls
 With the warmth from this security.
 And as we grow older and reflect
 On our carefree high school days
 We'll know that truly we're better people,
 Because we passed your way!

CLASS POET

We, the Senior Class of '65, being of sound mind and good health, do in this Last Will and Testament, leave to the herein-after mentioned articles. Anything not specifically mentioned, we're keeping.

Larry Hillard, Larry Powell, and Larry Gilmer leave 3 typewriters which have been broken in for next year's typing classes. Tim Mitch, Alan Blalock, Jack McKewen, Phil Benton, Ed Word, and Jim Hart leave to Mrs. Wallace a lunch table that laughs all by itself. Debby Smith, Jane Nelson, Marion MacDonald, and Jane Matthews leave 13 reams of paper, 400 books, and 1000 Cliff's Notes to one deserving student in hopes that he or she will have enough material for Mrs. Benson's outside reading. Miss Whaley's students of the Senior Class leave 20 minutes to next year's classes in hope that these students might have at least enough time to turn the pages of the exam before time is called. Jimmy Hagood bequeaths his lunchroom tray to Byrd Sherrill for the rest of the year. (You see, that's the way the money matches) All the Senior English classes return the book GREAT CHAIN OF BEING . . . page by page. This year's football team leaves a thimble full of good luck to next year's team as well as an empty 10 gallon jug of bad luck. The Senior members of the '65 basketball squad leave a can of oil to help out with any more squeakers. Jennie Andrews leaves a big cheer for Mary Duffey. Allen Baker leaves a brand new pair of wrestling shoes to whoever stole them. In addition to those published documents on the Senior Class history, we the Senior Class of '65 leave a volume of records of unusual activities of class members inscribed on the desks at Valley. All the thirsty Seniors at Valley leave an unsigned water pass and a chair in the Vice-Principal's office. To the "babies" in the Shades Valley P.E. classes, the Seniors leave the Pony Express—to RELAY. To the track team at Valley, several Senior members wish to leave 15 pounds of leg casts. Debby Davis leaves 16 wet blankets to cover the intercom in Miss Whaley's room. Jack Wright leaves 100 GOLDEN TONE reverberators for all the rest of the intercom units. Bill Pugh leaves a 'South American condor's mating call for the zoo and their keepers at Valley. For next year's Powder Puff coaches Tommy Hill, Billy Kimbrell, and Ken Moore leave a list of exercises guaranteed to break bones and split gym pants. John Terrell leaves a handful of library passes that "somebody lost." Betty McGibboney leaves a hall pass signed by someone who writes amazingly like Mr. Parker. Mr. Parker himself would like to leave that Christmas "Yo Ho Ho" and the itching powder in the Santa Claus beard to Charles Cline and Harold Ceitland. The Senior Class as a whole would like to leave to Mr. Amos one subscription to Ladies' Farm Journal and let him try to sell THAT!! Bill Cobb leaves a football helmet that would fit Goliath to anyone else who can see out of the ear holes. Crawford Williams, Mike Haugseth, and Ross Forman leave three elevator tickets—with a special "get acquainted" offer for Sophomores. Ann Warren and Tom Whetstone leave their combined SAT scores to the school just to spite the egg-headed spooks that wrote the tests. Johnny Robinson bequeaths some drum sticks to the Glee Club and some more to the Concert Choir. Timmy McIntyre can't will anything because he is too busy working as a teddy bear at Bruno's.

Last but certainly not least, the Seniors bequeath to the underclassmen at Valley the Senior privilege of experiencing the joys and pains of a final year at Valley.

At this time of the year, each year, an underprivileged student at Valley is designated by the poor, unknowing students to use some mysterious power to look into the future. I tried and tried to contact the spirits through the use of a crystal ball and the unconventional "boob tube," but that failed. I attempted to pull a prophecy out of a hat, but that failed. Looking to the stars and using astrology—reading Ann Landers and Dear Abby—even putting snail shells, puppy dog tails and 100 proof ale into a bubbling cauldron—none of these supernatural powers enabled me to see into the future. I had completely given up, when I decided to contact someone who would really know, or if not, could help me find out. I trudged five miles through the zoo, over Red Mountain—and came upon Ridgely Apartments, the home of the Grand Wizard, Volena Whaley. Miss Whaley received me warmly, making me answer only 23 Trig and 14 College Algebra problems as a kind of entrance exam. I tried using every type of persuasion thinkable, but they all failed to make the Grand Wizard consent to tampering with the unknown. Finally, I agreed to her terms. Miss Whaley would give me the formula for the future if I could work it out by myself, without cheat sheets, outside helps, or even studying! She gave me the formula, I went home to work it, got an answer, and my prophecy follows. But before we get into it, let me show you the formula.

$$\frac{C^2 + A^{1/2}}{3B^2} \quad \frac{4R^3 - (16a)^4 + 76r^{1/2} + g}{49(XR6)^{-7}}$$

If I worked out the formula correctly, beware of my prophecy, if it is incorrect, why worry?

The year 2000 A.D. is an interesting one for all former Valleyites.

In Birmingham, we calculate that Ken Griggs, Bruce Jackson, Louis Jagoe, Len Duffy, and Bill Bailey have enrolled in Long Loo's Learn Judo School. Loo has just written a book, How to Make A's in Calculus

Without Speaking English, which has already sold over a million copies.

The football team has sent two players to the pros. Allen Blaylock, our stellar quarterback is now playing defensive tackle with the San Diego Chargers. Jim Hart, our 230 pound defensive tackle, is the quarterback for the Birmingham Bears. Another player has made it big in the coaching field. Tim Mitch is coaching the So-So Mississippi County Industrial High School in volleyball. On weekends Mitch teams with Sharon Andrews in an old soft shoe routine at the So-So Country Club.

Larry Gilmer and Larry Powell have pooled their knowledge and finally released their new album, "Sounds of Mrs. Hunt's Biology Class," backed up by the Ray Charles Band. The cover of the album and the censorship have been done by Mrs. Hunt.

Squaring C and adding $A^{1/2}$ to it released a startling discovery. Jack Mills has lost his larynx. What will the world do without Jack's Opinion. Jack has graciously consented to allow Ned King to step into his size 13½ shoes and become the new leader of men.

Charles Wilcox, Stan Jones, and Rusty Whatley are still the strong, silent type. They have gone into caves to exist the rest of their unnatural lives.

Tim Smith has come out with the most exciting find of the modern age in wearing apparel. His new invention for students is a flesh colored sock, sparsely covered with hair, to confuse and confound the teachers at any school. Smith has patented his new invention and has millions, so why does he still not wear socks.

Jim Richardson has built a stadium that is likened to the Coliseum in Rome. He has grossed over two million dollars promoting after school bouts. The biggest attraction of the year was the match between Billy Kimbrell and the gorilla from the zoo. Kimbrell won easily, and remained champ until dethroned by Stan Starnes.

The Miami Supper Club has a star-studded array of beauties, including Nan Tucker, Georgia Boone, Pam Bryant, Terry Hazzard, and Peggy Leatherwood. Of course, Joe Forbes owns the joint and manages the girls.

Moving to the field of sciences and liberal arts, we find that Robert Norwich has split an atom of aluminum, to add to his shining glory. Marion MacDonald finally realized that she could not memorize the entire Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, so she settled with Volumes A, M, and C of the World Book Encyclopedia. Eleanor Payne has invented the newest of the amazing new robots. This one is a life size model of the student which is guaranteed to fool any and all teachers, including Mr. Parker, into thinking it is the same old student that occupied the seat before. This way, students such as Rish Boswell, Jr. can be away from class even more than usual. Last, but not least, Andrea Hasty, Camille Thomas, and Anne Glass have co-invented a new desk design. The student lies on her back and the magnetic desk top holds the paper in place above her. What improvement is this desk over the old one? It keeps the hair out of the eyes.

Some of the old Valley Students have built enormous bodies through Norman Secor's Body Beautiful Isometric Development Course. You should see Don Wood, Steve Swalley, Blair Orstadt, Bill Blount, and Shirley Brittain. You wouldn't even recognize most of them.

Susan Atkins, Kay Upton, Judy Williams, and Patti Russell are now really "the group". Don Austin helped them start a new and ultra-modern Home for Old Maids and Spinsters.

A few of the ex-powderpuff footballers at Valley have made themselves into quite a professional women's football team, "The Fancy Pants." Joannie Aarons, Betty McGibboney, Cary Ashbaucher, and last, but of course not least, Lee Merk, are a really rugged defensive line. With such flashy backs as Kae Nelson, Susan Butler, Patsy McLain, and Janice Sheffield, how could they lose? You tell me, because they do a good job of it.

Jack Cox, Tessa Ward, and Linda Trotter have become seven feet tall.

Jim Scott and Duane Coshatt are fighting it out for most valuable player on their professional baseball team. They both pitch for Stumptown, West Virginia.

Pat Lynch has spent her life as a movie star. After being tortured by reporters and photographers to the point of a complete nervous and physical breakdown, she poisoned herself. May she rest with her mouth closed.

Dink Joyner has joined the Rev. Billy Graham and is saving lives by the hundreds.

Van Corr can now wiggle his cute ears.

Sally Stone has perfected a flight of stairs that absorb the shock of a body tumbling down them.

In the fashion world, Charlotte Weaver and a host of other gypsies have just completed a dynamic new ear-piercing machine. Gayle Weaver has collected all the lovely fashion designs pictured weekly in Mad Magazine. Playboy has accepted Clark Collier, Charles Cline, and Wilbur Salter as their new body editors. Johnny Robinson not only designs men's wearing apparel for Gant and Sero, but also plays drums at the Nook on week-ends.

Dotty Thomas is a waitress.

Bill Cobb is a farmer.

Tim McIntyre weighs 110 pounds.

Jeannie Williams and Linda Martin are ugly.

Carol King is a blond.

Jack McKewen and Allen Baker are playboys.

The last answers to my equation could have been in slight error but who can tell about the future. The year 2000 A.D. is quite different from 1965 A.D., as you may well see. Folding my notebook, breaking my pencil, and falling over in complete mental exhaustion, I end this prophecy . . . but wait, the future is impractical, improbable, and full of new adventures for each and every senior here at Valley. Please make something of yourself that your teachers will be proud of, and leave this school only to enter another, the school of life.

God bless each and every one of you.

CLASS PROPHET

One more year has just slipped by and now it is time to look back and record all the events that have come and gone. Here I am with one hand on a typewriter and a slide-rule in the other and not knowing how to use either one of them.

The first events were the thrilling football games everyone attended. The spirit this year was the greatest thing of the season. In every pep rally I calculated a grand total of 60 people standing and cheering with the cheerleaders. Of this total, there were 47 football players, 12 cheerleaders and Stan Starnes, the manager.

The football team did exceptionally well this year with a 3-6-0 record and a total of 11 out of 22 players injured and not playing on the two varsity squads. We must congratulate a few of the players for outstanding accomplishments. Lee Parker punted 40 times for an average of 15 yards. Tommy Hill was knocked unconscious 10 times in practice games. Ken Moore made a grand total of 6 tackles during the season. And, I am sure, everyone will recall Jim Hart's tremendous punt return of 1 yard against Berry.

The second event of the year was the magazine sale that we organized for the Curtis Company and, of course, Mr. Amos. We made a grand total of $15,876 in sales compared to the $13,613 sold by the seniors of the previous year. This was an increase of $2,263.00!

Bettie McGibboney and Mr. Amos had a total of 17 fights: Bettie said "No" 251 times while Mr. Amos said "Yes" 252 times. Who really was the winner?

We have had a number of new faces appearing at Valley this year. Just to name two were Billy Kimbrell and Jim Barone. Billy came from Mississippi and you could tell it. He has been in a total of 123 fights—winning 123 of them. A fine record for the sergeant! Jim moved here from Florida and has had a total of 227 dates so far. Another fine record for a newcomer.

The WSGN petition program was a great success. We came in 19th place with a total of $2\frac{1}{2}$ petitions!

Mr. Clement's first semester trigonometry classes had a total population of 197. The numbers who attended it again the second semester along with Algebra III was 185!

Jack Wright has done an outstanding job of getting people in to Morning Watch . . . I have calculated that he dragged a total of 10,851 in with a total of 9,681 sneaking out. Those remaining were Juniors and Sophomores who were afraid to leave while Mr. Morino was singing.

Coach Bill Legg, that master of the Physical Education department, has made this year's football seniors run a total of 487.26 miles in P.E.! This figure, of course, does not include the mileage in regular football season.

Coach Bobby Jackson has said "babies" only 54 times, but he has worn his knee socks and Army pants 236 times.

Coach Jim Simms has attempted to teach his 348 students the ways and means of strutting. All of the 196 boys mastered the art but the 152 girls just could not quite get into the "swing" of it.

Space does not provide that I cover all of the interesting events of this past year, but I do believe we shall always remember the most outstanding ones. It is my sincere hope that the past three years at Valley have been happy ones and will be instrumental to you for a successful future.

May God bless every one of you.

the Tower

In the world around the Tower there is no more important element than the communities who give their support. Merchants and patrons share our dreams of a greater school who contribute to the various publications, and who provide for our practical needs. Valley is indeed fortunate to be surrounded by such friends, and to them we express our sincere thanks.

Birmingham

From where I stand atop Red Mountain, I can see Jefferson County stretched out about me. What a sight! New expressways, linking the various communities with the highways beyond, yet I am content to stay in the Magic City and represent the people who have forged me from steel, iron, and limestone, all of which are found in abundance in these hills. Would you believe it, Birmingham is only 94 years young and yet she can boast of having 274 public schools, four colleges, and 700 churches to serve its 834,800 people. These are not just statistics, but evidence of the sincere concern that Birmingham's people have for their children . .

Homewood

It's an easy twist. I'm not too old, you see to get a good look at the valley and Homewood nestled in its center. I've watched Homewood grow to its present population of 20,641 people, receiving national recognition for the wonderful support it has given to its nine public schools. It is here that Howard College, the largest privately supported co-educational institution in Alabama, has its campus. Shades Valley High, one of the largest high schools in the state, has the good fortune of benefiting from its teacher-training program . . .

And while I've got my head turned, I must admit that I'm mighty proud of Mountain Brook, for all its help in making Shades Valley High School a really fine institution of learning. But that's not all I'm proud of Mountain Brook for. With only a population of 14,000, it has four schools and a junior high school. Increased enrollment and constant revision of teaching methods are evidence of the continuous progress of their school system. As one of the most beautiful residential cities of the country, Mountain Brook takes pride in its setting of natural beauty and further . . .

NO COMMENT!!!

Welcoming College Day representatives.

Tempus fugit—how prophetic!

The day is done. Soft darkness fills all space. The turmoil has ceased.

The clatter of feet and the whirl of motors have died away . . . All is quiet.

Acknowledgements

We would like to acknowledge the following people for allowing the TOWER Staff to use their facilities for pictures.

Alabama Power Company and Mr. Leon Chambers
Birmingham Botanical Gardens
Jackson Real Estate, Office Park
First National Bank, Main Office
Mazer's for Modern, Homewood
Parliament House
The Club
WBRC

and especially Mrs. George Bridges and Mrs. Horace Hammond for the use of their gardens for some extra special pictures.

An extra vote of thanks goes to:

Mr. Perry Covington, for the time and interest he has given in taking the really fine pictures in our annual.

Mr. John Paul Jones, for his help in delivering and developing of pictures, and for his patience and understanding with the Tower Staff when they were working at his home as well as for all the good food.

Lollars, for prompt service in getting our pictures developed.

Loveman's Photo-Reflex Studio, particularly Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Costes, for extra hours of reminding students and faculty of pictures to be made.
Taylor Publishing Co., for their tireless efforts to make the '65 TOWER a success.

Administration, faculty, and staff of Shades Valley High School, for their help and co-operation in helping to produce the 1965 TOWER.

Johnny, I've been thinking of the time you spent in the 2 years you spent in the great & good service you have given to a great & good cause. I hope you will have a very good future.
